

Appointed By Grace

Joe Irwin - Karla Burris - Christine Scott

Joe, Karla and Christine offer a unique mix of gospel music singing styles. Joe has been involved in music ministry for over thirty years. He sang and played bass with a family group called the Woodromes for many years as they traveled throughout the southeastern United States. In addition to being Godly wives and mothers, Karla and Christine have both been involved in singing ministries since childhood. God has gifted them as singers, songwriters, musicians and ministers. They have proven themselves to be dedicated to God and their families. Joe served as an Associate Pastor and as a Youth/Music Director. He is now serving as an Evangelist. Karla grew up in a family of talented singers and musicians. She has taught Sunday school, AWANA, and ladies Bible studies in her home church. For over thirteen years, she performed weekly at the Liberty Opry. Singing there led to many opportunities for her to sing at community ceremonies, Senior Center programs, worship services and various church functions. Christine accepted the Lord as her Savior and enjoyed traveling singing and preaching with her husband, Floyd, for 20 years as Hearts of Grace until he passed away in 2020. She plays piano and always has a smile on her face because the joy of the Lord is her strength. Joe, Karla and Christine have appeared on numerous television programs throughout the nation and have completed numerous recording projects both as a group and separately. Their ministry consists of powerful singing wrapped in the Word of God and seasoned with personal testimonies. Through the medium of song, they paint a portrait of hope for the lost, call the sinner to repentance, and encourage the Christian to service.
