

In some of my research, I have found the parallels with sickness and disease relative to what goes on Spiritually in our lives.

For instance:

Headaches- Problems with the head, leadership. Many women who have consistent headaches often times aren't submissive to their husbands but tend to be the dominate one contrary to how the Lord has designed it.

Heart Problems- Heart issues towards God or people.

Hypertension- Anger, Rage issues, Aggression

High Cholesterol- a thickening. Thick-headedness.

Inflammation-Pride.

Filtering Organs- Stuff we are not fully filtering in life that the Lord wants to show us.

Breast Cancer- the Breasts nurture; normally we find a breakdown in nurturing.

Prostrate- in the Greek means 'go-between'. When a man has been diagnosed with Prostrate Cancer we will often find him being the boss, father, leader, minister, etc., but abusing that position, the 'go-between' if after the Lord dealing with such a man, the man continues rebelling and he opens a door to the demonic realm and is attacked in that area.

Cancers often times are rooted in unforgiveness, bitterness, hatred towards self and others.

(I have seen in Childhood Cancers often the parent's carry either the Physical Genetics or there is a Spiritual Generational Curse. (Read my Counseling Page for more information)

Problems with Joints- We have to look at our connections.

Problems Walking- How is our walk with the Lord?

Eye Problems- How is our Vision?

I could go on and on but there is not a Medical Diagnosis that I cannot find out where it has been given access to in a person's life due to their Spiritual life. We also have to rule out as well...

Generational Curses and Genetic Curses. Regardless of what is it, repentance at times will precede Supernatural Healing. For the most part, I have seen with genuine repentance a Supernatural and sudden Healing Occur.

Two instances I will share...

I had been speaking with a Minister friend of mine for some time. She attended an Assembly's of God Church and was venting because Assemblies of God are Pentecostal Churches; yet this Pastor would not allow praying in the Spirit or the Gifts of the Spirit to Operate in His Church.

We found out; he had suddenly been diagnosed with Stage 4 Prostate Cancer. The call went out for prayer.

If you know me and I know someone is in willful disobedience; I won't pray or waste my time or anointing on such a one. Spiritual attacks come when you fight demons on another when they have given them permission to be there.

Upon having tea with this Minister friend; out of the blue my finger pointed in her face and out of my mouth (and I knew it was the Lord) "You tell My son to stop quenching My Spirit in this place and I will heal him." Her and I both shocked at the utterance.

I asked her what the Prostate does? She researched it. In the Greek it means 'go between'.

This man was the go between God and man. Fully knowing he wasn't obeying God.

Now I don't know what happened because weeks had went by and because people are familiar with me or because of my young age, many – how do I say this... ummm... they question me and the Lord through me. I've gotten used to it but I'm just the Messenger. After I release what He says; the blood is no longer on my hands.

This Minister after several weeks fasted and prayed to get up the courage to confront her Pastor and tell him the word spoken through a Prophet who came to her house. She released the word. The Pastor repented. He was healed supernaturally.

Another... a young woman diagnosed with Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma.

When I hear of a diagnosis, if I don't sense right away the onset, I like to research it.

It's upon researching it, a word or phrase; the Lord usually highlights something to me.

When I researched Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma I found it was generally diagnosed in older men who were exposed to farming pesticides. When I asked this young woman if she had ever been on a farm and exposed to pesticides...

She put her head down and began to cry. Her grandfather and his brother had molester her and her brother when they were children on their farm.

She had carried a lot of bitterness, hatred, and unforgiveness for them we had to work through first.

The Lord had me fast for three days after feeling like we had worked through all of that and He sent me to her place to pray for her total healing. Upon arriving we went into her bedroom as it was the only quiet room in her house and as I began to pray, it was like trying to place two magnets together and that jelly type sensation as they repel each other; I felt that same sensation between my hands and her back. This was the first time that happened where I felt like the healing anointing wasn't flowing through me and I got quiet and stopped to inquire of the Lord.

As I got quiet I saw in black the word, 'Sister.'

I said to her, 'I just saw the word 'Sister' in black, what does that mean to you?'

She put her head down and began to cry. She said her twin sister died in an automobile accident and she always wished it was her (self hatred- another door open so disease may come in)...

I said, 'What else?'

She got up from her bed, showed me a shrine she made for her sister and told me she speaks to her every night.

At this point I had to stop and get the Bible out. I had to explain the shrine needed to be torn down as God sees that as idolatrous (which we did right then and there), that in the Bible; God forbids Necromancy (conjuring up the dead) and we went through the Bible, then she asked the Lord to forgive her (repentance) and then the Lord allowed me to pray for her healing.

This time as I lay my hands on her- the only way to describe it was like when I was a kid and would take a magnifying glass and catch ants and leaves on fire...

It felt like the Lord had a large magnifying glass that was placed over my shoulder blades and I could feel the fire go into my back, through my shoulders and out of my hands and into her body. She lay on her bed shaking. I knew it was the raw power of God healing her but my eyes didn't like seeing her shake like that. As she lay there feeling heavy from the Holy Spirit, I quietly left her and the Lord alone and went home. She immediately went into remission.

A year or so later she shows up at my home with another woman.

She had mentioned she needed to get her liver scraped. I said, 'Liver? That's a filtering organ. What are you not filtering?'

She said, 'A prayer Minister at another Church said that to me as well, that I wasn't filtering something.'

I said, 'Are you talking to your dead sister again, or what you think is your dead sister?'

She put her head down.

The woman with her said, 'See, I told you you can't play with that stuff.'

Every time she would disobey God in an area; the Cancer would come back.
