

Ironsides XLIII Entry Form

Eligibility	Serving and past members of the RCAC Non-armoured pers serving or formally attached to a Corps unit. All RCAC and RCAC Unit Association members
Fee	$280.00 Make cheques payable to Dave MacLeod and send to the address below or transfer the funds to Dave's email below. Dave does not use the NPF as this is now run as a private event and we want to keep things simple. Receipts will be issued at the Skip's Draw on 2 April.
Events	A, B, C, D, E and Old Comrades (depending on number of teams) Event runners up.. Most Sportsmanlike team. Trophies and prize table.
Itinerary	Meet and greet 2 April - 1900 hrs (WO's and Sgt's Mess) Skip's draw 2 April - 2000 hrs (loc as above) Curling 3 and 4 April, Garrison Golf and Curling Club. Prizes 4 April NLT 1700 hrs Banquet follows prizes immediately
Accommodations	Base quarters available R&Q.BaseKingston@forces.gc.ca 613-541-5010, ext 5345 Motel accommodation available nearby
Committee	LCol (Ret) Dave MacLeod, 613-985-9037 602-66 Greenview Dr, Kingston, ON K7M 7C5 cavalrysabre@gmail.com WO Mke Richard, 613-541-5010, ext 4334 CSN 271-4334 Mike.Richard@forces.gc.ca Jim Campbell - Drawmaster
Trophies, Flags and Prizes	Teams are reminded to return with any trophies won by past winners from their unit or association, updated with last years winner's names. If a winning team from last year cannot return , they are asked to ensure the trophy makes its way to this year's event. Teams are also reminded to bring a unit flag for display and are encouraged to wear jackets, etc identifying their team. Lastly, teams are reminded to bring a prize for the prize table, in multiples of four.
Dress	Casual throughout and remember, outdoor shoes cannot be worn on the ice surface. Sliders are available but wear CLEAN shoes.

Ironsides XLIII Entry Form

Team Name: _____

Skip Name: _____

Contact info: _____

Vice Name: _____

Contact info: _____

Second Name: _____

Contact Info: _____

Lead Name: _____

Contact Info: _____

Please mail or email this portion with your registration payment as soon as possible.