

I couldn't be more pleased to announce that I've joined the sales team at Weichert, Properties®. Weichert is a terrific organization with a commitment to responsive customer service that matches my own. What's more, weichert.com ranks as the number one most visited real estate broker website on the entire east coast.

I look forward to combining my own real estate expertise with the customer focus that has helped Weichert become one of the nation's largest and most successful privately-owned real estate companies.

Whether you're already in the market or just beginning to think about buying or renting a new place to live –or about selling your current one - please contact me. It would be my pleasure to assist you.

I am looking forward to hearing from you and seeing how everything is going on in your world, get in touch when you have a moment.

Warm Regards,

Paul
