

Consul General Austria Inducts the 2018-19 Philippines Canada Trade Council Board

24 October 2018 – Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria presides over the induction of the new set of officers of the Philippines Canada Trade Council (PCTC); namely, Chair Teresita Ireneo-Manalo (standing, 5R), Secretary Romeo Quilala (3R), Directors William Howie (rightmost), Ray Lino (6R), Mary Tecson (2R), and Francis Lingad (4R), held at the Acsenda School of Management, where Chair Manalo is Vice President for Academic and Dean. “Unity of purpose” and “inclusiveness of action,” she said, would be the guiding principles of the 2018-19 Board of Directors.

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (seated, 4R), with the officers and members of the Philippines Canada Trade Council, led by its Chair Teresita Ireneo-Manalo (seated, 5R). Also seated with Consul General Austria are immediate past president Mercedes Wong (seated, 2L) and officers of the Consulate and POLO-Vancouver.

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (center) and PCTC Chair Teresita Ireneo-Manalo (4R) pose with the group of Filipino students from ACSEDA who volunteered for the induction and networking event, which also served as the first official activity for the school since it moved to its new site on Burrard Street.