

The Thousand Oaks High School PTSA will award a limited number of scholarships to graduating Lancer Seniors who plan on moving on to postsecondary education. The TOHS PTSA is interested in rewarding a diverse group of students, and want to encourage all members who are interested to apply, including students who may not feel they fit the profile of the traditional scholarship winner.

Eligibility

Any student who plans to attend a university, community college, vocational school, or other accredited institution are eligible. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of contribution to Thousand Oaks High School through activities, academics, arts, leadership, or sports. Student must be a member in good standing of the TOHS PTSA. If you aren't a member you can join online at www.tohsptsa.com under the membership tab or join through the PTSA envelopes in the office.
