

Philippine-Canada Trade Council Welcomes New Philippine Consul General to Vancouver

22 August 2018, Vancouver – Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria addresses the membership of the Philippines Canada Trade Council during their welcome dinner for her held at the Hilton Vancouver Metrotown. She commended them for their efforts in promoting bilateral trade and spoke of upcoming projects which she hoped the PCTC would support.

Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (front row, 3rd from left) poses with BC Minister of State for Trade George Chow (center) and current PCTC officers, led by its president, Mercedes Wong (front row, leftmost), and vice president, Tess Irineo-Manalo. The PCTC was established in 1983 as a non-profit organization that promotes trade and investment between the Philippines and Canada.