

Clark, Phyllis

Phyllis M. Clark, 80, of Colfax Township, died Saturday, May 3, 2003, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility following a long illness. Mrs. Clark was born Jan. 2, 1923 to the late Fred and Nellie Liedke, formerly of Port Hope. She and Arthur W. Clark were united in marriage on Nov. 8, 1941 at the Port Hope Methodist parsonage. Mrs. Clark was preceded in death by her husband in January 1997. Mrs. Clark was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Bad Axe. She lived in Meade Township until 1952 when they moved to Colfax Township and farmed until retirement in 1984. Mrs. Clark and her husband opened their home to several foster children and foster adults over the years. She enjoyed visiting with family and friends, crocheting, and baking. She was employed at the Huron County Medical Care Facility for many years. Surviving are three daughters, Beverly Vandervennet and her husband, Fred, of Bad Axe, Ladonna Fagan and her husband, Patrick, of Livonia, and Judy Pray and her husband, Robert, of Otisville; a son, Ronald A. Clark and his wife, Randie, of Bad Axe; seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Evelyn Harris and her husband, Don, of Bradenton, Fla., Connie Krueger and her husband, Raymond, of Harbor Beach; three brothers, Edward Liedke and his wife, Mary, of Bradenton, Fla., Alfred Liedke and his wife, Esther, of Harbor Beach, and Robert Liedke and his wife, Betty, of Pigeon. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, May 6, 2003, at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Bad Axe. The Rev. Kenneth Lueke, pastor, assisted by Mr. Ray Sting, will officiate. Interment will take place at Colfax Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 4 to 9 p.m. today, and from 1 to 9 p.m. Monday at the MacAlpine Funeral Home of Bad Axe, and from 10 to 11 a.m. Tuesday at the church. An expression of sympathy may be offered to Our Savior Lutheran Church Building Fund, the Huron County Medical Care Facility, or the Multiple Sclerosis Association.
