Mission Statement:

“Palestine Lutheran Church exists to proclaim and live God’s Holy Word, to nurture and support our membership, and to enable us to live our faith in our daily lives. As we are nourished, we are called to reach out to our communities, our spheres of influence, and to the wider world through the church-at-large.”

Our Vision:

Palestine Lutheran Church will be a haven for all generations, a people worshipping and growing continually in relationship with Jesus, inspired by God’s Word; a living example of stewardship, a loving and caring fellowship that reaches out in Christ-centered faith and love to the world.

Pastor Eric will be doing limited visitation for members who would like to have one. Please contact Pastor Eric if you would like to have a visit. You do not have to wait for him to call.

The Bible Interpreting Us.....
..... With Pastor Eric

⁸For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. ⁹For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. ¹⁰For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, ¹¹so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. Isaiah 55:8-11

We have made our way through summer and have come to the beginning of the fall academic year with its new routines and expectations. It is time to reflect on the summer break with all of its teachings and experiences to incorporate them into a new semester of life.

For this August newsletter article, I am reminded of Isaiah 55 in which God declares how the Creator is indeed different and removed for the Created. After all, “God is God” and “Humanity is not God” no matter what we might think or believe about it. We will never completely understand God no matter how many times we ask “why?” therefore we acknowledge that God is a mystery and yet in Jesus Christ we come to know God as trustworthy and loving towards us and all the created.

When God speaks His word in/through Jesus and the Holy Spirit in the Bible, we have God’s promise that God’s words will accomplish God’s purpose and bring forth a desired response in us and for the world. Our challenge is not so much how to understand what the scriptures mean to us because no singular scripture has a singular meaning but allow the scriptures to interpret us. What do I mean by “interpret us”?

The Bible contains the “living” Word of God to us. The word is living because it speaks through us and we encounter or hear that word in different ways and at different times. The sermon, therefore, does not explain a text in full, but rather pulls and orients on parts of the texts that speak to the assembly in a current day and a current time, engaging our imagination to find ways it has meaning right now. We struggle with applications of Biblical texts from 2000+ years ago which is part of the process; however, our thinking might be best served in grasping principals and themes from the many stories of the Bible. We love stories and God’s word to us comes in stories which we can relate to and wonder about – after all, life is one big story and God is a part of your story. We can hear God’s word in ways that help us see how God interacts with our story and the stories of others in history.

This new school year is a great opportunity to listen for God’s word as it unfolds in our life now. We will experience many new, exciting, and challenging things this year and God has something to say about it, as well as something to do with it.

Let us pray. Gracious God, faithful and loyal, loving, and gracious, we thank you for the stories which reveal your character and will for us especially that of your Son Jesus Christ. May your words of song, scripture, testimony, and sermon interpret us and open a deeper connection to your heart for each of us, in Jesus name we pray. Amen.

Thank You!

Thank-you to my Church Family for the Prayers, Greetings, and Well Wishes for my 100th B'day. My Church Family has always been a big part of my life. Sharing with you Pastor Buland's confirmation sermon of Dec. 8, 1935, "If you continue in my Word, you are truly my Disciple. You will know the Truth, and the truth will make you Free". John 8:31. Forever True. Those four words have helped to guide me in faith. May God continue to Lead, Guide, and Bless us. With Appreciation, Love, and Prayer.

LSI Bulletin/Newsletter Article and Story

Back to School Month

School is right around the corner! This time of year can be exciting and stressful for many of us, but adjusting back into a classroom routine can be especially difficult for kids and teens with emotional or behavioral disorders.

Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI) provides mental and behavioral health services for children and families across the state. Our therapists provide virtual and in-person therapy sessions with children, while our Behavioral Health Intervention Services (BHIS) team collaborates with families in their home to help them develop skills like anger management and healthy decision making. LSI also provides 24-hour mental health care at our Bremwood Residential Treatment Center in Waverly to empower Iowa children and teens.

We thank you for your support of LSI's mission as we respond together to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service! We know there are more Iowa children in need of this critical care. If you would like to learn more about how you can give a gift to support these crucial services, please contact Deb Whitford, LSI director of philanthropy and church relations, at 563-676-2065 or Deborah.Whitford@LSIowa.org.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSI (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. LSI Bulletin/Newsletter Article and Story

Support for the Long Run

Part of LSI's mission is to ensure hundreds of Iowa children and families have access to quality mental health care, parenting education, and crisis services.

On our Bremwood Residential Treatment Center campus in Waverly, staff are able to provide 24/7 behavioral health care and encouragement for children and teens like N. During her time on campus, N. and her team of therapists and professionals worked on developing coping skills that could help her manage her anger on the difficult days and take space for herself when she felt overwhelmed.

She was able to participate in Spiritual Life, a voluntary faith-based program offered on campus. N. says the program helped her learn important lessons about forgiveness and trust through reading passages of scripture. She says the biggest lesson she has learned is that "when you make a mistake, there are ways to fix it."

N. is now looking ahead and has goals for her future. She is working on graduating high school, and she is excited to get her driver's license. She wants to become a special education teacher and empower the next generation, and she wants her story to inspire other kids who could benefit from the same care she received through LSI.

LSI does not identify the people we serve, except in well-vetted circumstances. The names and some personal details we use in this story have been changed.*
