

Race Report

The heat and humidity of summer is almost behind us and the HBYC racing season is ready to resume in September. The schedule for the rest of the year is as follows:

- Sept 8 Women at the Helm Race (No Points)
- Sept 22 Hudson to Anclote Fun Race (No Points)
- Oct 20 - Scandia Cup Race
- Oct 27 - Hudson To Hooters Race
- Nov 3 - Gulf Harbors YC Fall Regatta Race.

The next event is the Women at the Helm Race on September 8. This is a favorite every year. The Women at the Helm Race and the Hudson to Anclote Fun Race are fun races and offer a great chance for sailors to try their hand at racing in a fun environment. The Scandia Cup Race and the Hudson-To-Hooters Race are the last two points race for the annual sailing championship. The Gulf Harbors YC Fall Regatta Race is a major event on our calendar and is greatly supported by our racers who have excelled over the past two years. I'm sure we will again support this regatta and other club members will have the opportunity to attend the event after race dinner at GHYC. The current standings for the five race events already completed are as follows:
