

INTROIT - entrance Psalm of worship Psalm 100, Matt. 28

℣ The Lord is | risen! *

He is risen indeed, Al- | leluia!

☩ Make a joyful noise to the LORD, | all the earth! ***
Serve the LORD with | gladness!

℣ Come into his presence with | singing! *

Know that the LORD, | he is God!

☩ It is he who made us, and | we are his; ***

we are his people, and the sheep of his | pasture.

℣ Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his | courts with praise! *

Give thanks to him; | bless his name!

☩ For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures for- | ever, ***
and his faithfulness to all gener- | ations.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son *

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning, *

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

℣ Come into his presence with | singing! *

Know that the LORD, | he is God!

COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

℣ O almighty and eternal God, now that You have assured us of the completion of our redemption through the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, give us the will to show forth in our lives what we profess with our lips; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

FIRST READING Acts 3:11-21 Peter confessing the risen Lord

While the lame man who was now healed clung to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astounded, ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's. And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And his name---by faith in his name---has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all. "And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, whom heaven must receive until the time for restoring all the things about which God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets long ago.

GRADUAL the ancient seasonal, Scriptural response to hearing God's Word Matt. 28, Heb. 2, Psalm 8

℣ Christ is risen | from the dead. *

God the Father has crowned Him with glory and | honor.

☩ He has made Him ruler over the works | of His hands; ***

He has put everything un- | der His feet.

EPISTLE 1 John 3:1-7 We shall appear as He is

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

HOLY GOSPEL Luke 24:36-49 Jesus appears to His disciples

As they [the disciples] were talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace to you!" But they were startled and frightened and thought they saw a spirit. And he said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them. Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled."

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

Please turn to follow the processional cross for the Gospel reading. You may bow as it passes you in reverence to Christ.

Risen Savior Lutheran Church

The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod - Basehor, Kansas

3rd Sunday of Easter

April 18, 2021

500th Anniversary of Martin Luther at the Diet of Worms

Welcome to the Lord's House. The Preaching of Repentance and Forgiveness of Sins Makes Us Pure. The risen Lord Jesus taught His disciples "that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead" and "that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations" (Luke 24:46-47). St. Peter preaches repentance and forgiveness to the people of Jerusalem. As he proclaims that Jesus fulfilled all that "God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets" (Acts 3:18), he also convicts the people of their sin, because they "delivered over and denied" this Lord Jesus and "killed the Author of life." Yet God "glorified his servant Jesus" and raised Him from the dead (Acts 3:13-15). St. Peter calls the people to repent, so that their "sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord" (Acts 3:19-20). Through this forgiveness of sins and by faith in this forgiveness, the Father shows His love for us in order that "we should be called children of God; and so we are" (1 John 3:1). Thus, we hope in Him and are made pure "as he is pure," because "he appeared in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin" (1 John 3:3,5). May the Lord bless this Divine Service.

"Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures or by clear reason - for I do not trust either in the pope or in councils alone, since it is well known they've often erred and contradicted themselves- I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not retract anything, since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience. I cannot do otherwise, here I stand, may God help me, Amen."

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for our guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
