President's Corner, June 2012

Hello everyone, welcome to June! I hope everyone had a great time at Jazzfest, Greek Fest, and whatever fest you've attended. As you know this Friday is the WYES VIP tasting, and Saturday is the WYES New Orleans International Beer Festival. We have 6 beers at Friday's event, and at last count 19 beers at Saturday's event. Please try to come represent the club even if you're not donating beer.

Having people there with our logo on helps bring us to the masses. It should be a great time, and I believe there will be more food this year. Anyway, I will see many of you out there! Hope everyone's summer is going well! Until next time....

Join WYES, your local public broadcasting station, along with local and national beer distributors for two days of beer tasting – and well...just for a real good time!

Friday's event, WYES PRIVATE BEER SAMPLING, held at the Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots pays tribute to the craft of American and European brewers. With over 50 rare craft brewed beers, specially made cask and home brewed beers, as well as special one-off beers from local breweries – this limited ticket event is one you don't want to miss.

Then on Saturday night at the Lakefront Arena during the WYES INT'L BEER TASTING, enjoy a quarter-mile of beer by sampling regional craft beers, ales and lagers. Be sure not to miss out on our beer seminars (short & sweet, but right to the point and informative).
