President's Byline

I am writing this seven days before election day. The New York Post has uncovered an alleged corruption and money laundering scandal with Joe and Hunter Biden. The last Presidential debate has passed and early voting is in its second week. While we have seen record early voting turn out, we must continue to get the GOP vote out.

We must do everything we can to make sure that Marxists don't take over our nation. We do that by making sure every Republican on the ballot wins and wins big. That happens by informing the people who have not voted about the differences between the candidates and the parties.

President Trump and the Republicans want to cut taxes, cut regulations, keep power with the states, increase American jobs, and have more products made in the USA. The President achieved all those things before Covid-19 and he can do it again.

Biden and the Democrats want high taxes, more regulations, take power away from the states, make national mandates, pack the courts, end the filibuster, create socialized medicine, ban fossil fuels, and send more jobs over seas. Republicans want more liberty, while the Democrats want more control.

Victory 2020 still has lots of things you can do to help. Please contact Brittany Branard at bbranard@texasgop.org or Collin County GOP at info@collincountygop.org to see where you can help. Liberty is on the line.

Guest Speaker

Grant Stinchfield
Our 2nd Amendment Rights

Meet Grant Stinchfield: The man behind "Grant's Rant"

As the host of "Stinchfield" on Newsmax TV Grant has made it his mission to expose liberal lunacy and the ills of socialism. Our American way of life is under attack. It is our job to defend it.

As an avid sportsman and firearms enthusiast, Grant has made it one of his top missions to defend the Second Amendment. He's been around firearms since he was a child and, whether it was trapshooting with his father or running a tactical course with law enforcement, his love of guns compelled Grant to get his federal firearms license.

Each day on Newsmax and his fill in work as a conservative talk radio host, Grant focuses on the issues important to freedom-loving Americans. He's made a career of exposing government waste, fraud and abuse. And as a former four time Emmy Award-winning investigative reporter, Grant provides a unique insight into media bias and how the mainstream media actually operates.

Grant is also a successful entrepreneur. He has founded, bought and sold numerous businesses. He currently runs a long-haul trucking company as well as a large auto care business; both of those companies are located in Dallas, Texas.

AMERICANISM REPORT

BY ANNE LOGAN, AMERICANISM CHAIR

LITTLE KNOWN AMERICAN HISTORY FACTS

There are so many interesting facts to learn when studying American history. Below are some I bet you didn't know.

- The first African American to receive the Medal of Honor in the Civil War was Sgt. William Harvey Carney, who despite being shot in the face, shoulders, arms and legs, refused to let the American flag touch the ground.
- Although we picture the Founding Fathers as old men, many were quite young. By July 4, 1776, Aaron Burr was 20, Alexander Hamilton was 21, James Madison 25, John Jay 29, and Thomas Jefferson 33.
- Every night, the U.S. Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and the Declaration of Independence are lowered into a bomb-proof safe.
- By law, no U.S. officer is ever allowed to out rank George Washington. He was posthumously promoted to "Six Star General" to make sure.
- Teddy Roosevelt practiced a "the show must go on" mentality. Once while delivering a speech in Milwaukee, Roosevelt was shot in an assassination attempt. "I don't know whether you fully understand that I have just been shot," he told the stunned audience. "I give you my word, I do not care a rap about being shot; not a rap." He went on to finish the hour and a half speech with a bullet lodged in his chest.
- William Taft was too big for this world. The largest president in American history, Taft got himself stuck in the White House bathtub and had to call for help to get himself out.
- Richard Nixon was a card shark. While in the Navy, Nixon realized that his friends were winning money at poker games. Wanting to get in on the action, Nixon had someone teach him poker and within a few months he won around $6,000. He used that money to fund his first congressional campaign.
- George W. Bush had school spirit. Bush was the head cheerleader during his senior year at boarding school.
- Someone is still collecting a Civil War pension. The Civil War ended in 1865, but Irene Triplet is still collecting a pension. Her father served in the war which entitles Triplet, who is now almost 90 years old, to a survivor's benefit of $73.13 a month. One can only imagine Triplet has seen a great deal in her life and knows all about the triumphs and tragedies only military families can understand.
- Being a supreme court justice is undoubtedly a stressful job. One way they let off a little steam is with a friendly game of basketball. A storage room on the top floor of the Supreme Court was converted into a basketball court. Justices and their clerks shoot hoops there. And you thought you knew all about Ruth Bader Ginsburg.
- If you thought that Ben Franklin and the founding fathers came up with the constitution all by themselves you'd be wrong. They actually modeled it after the constitution of the Iroquois confederacy of Native American tribes.
- You may think it's a fact that Thanksgiving was always held on the fourth Thursday of November, but that's not the case. The holiday was held on several different dates until Abraham Lincoln declared in 1863 that it would henceforth be held the fourth Thursday in November of every year. This day was honored by every subsequent president until FDR moved it to the third Thursday of November in 1939 to extend the Christmas season. After many complaints, he realized his mistake and moved it back to the fourth Thursday two years later; and that's when we celebrate it today.

More Examples of Election Fraud Prove the Left Is in Denial About It

By Hans von Spakovsky, for the Daily Signal, October 14, 2020

The 2020 presidential election is less than three weeks away, and many Americans have already voted early or through the mail. Unfortunately, at the same time that they are exercising their franchise, there are others out there who are taking advantage of the vulnerabilities in our system to try to steal their vote or dilute the value of their vote.

Though many on the left downplay the threats to the security and integrity of the electoral process, such fraud really does occur, jeopardizing free and fair elections for the American people.

The Heritage Election Fraud Database showcases a sampling of close to 1,300 proven instances of election fraud. Yet, many other cases go unreported and other potential cases are not investigated or prosecuted.

There has been a rash of recent arrests around the country. Although those who have been charged are entitled to a presumption of innocence, these cases illustrate the types of fraud that have occurred and can occur that threaten our democratic system.

In New Hampshire, Attorney General Gordon MacDonald announced an indictment against a woman for allegedly voting in the town of Derry during the 2018 general election despite residing in Washington D.C., not New Hampshire.

The indictment says she submitted a false voter registration form and then voted using an absentee ballot. In Hooksett, New Hampshire, Michael Lewis has been charged with illegally voting in the 2016 general election even though he is a resident of Georgia, where he was arrested at the request of New Hampshire authorities. The Coalition of New Hampshire Taxpayers, run by registered Democrat Ed Naile, discovered that Lewis used the state's same-day voter registration law in Hooksett to illegally register and vote.

And those are not the only recent cases from the Granite State.

Vincent Marzello was arrested for voting twice in the 2016 general election in West Lebanon, New Hampshire, once as himself and then again under the name of a woman, Helen Elisabeth Ashley.

In California, a man by the name of Caesar Peter Abutin was charged with three counts of felony voter fraud. Despite Abutin's mother passing away in 2006, he voted under her name multiple times between October 2012 and November 2014, in addition to casting ballots under his own name.

These cases demonstrate how sometimes it can take years for the evidence in election fraud cases to come to fruition and for the potential fraudsters to face justice.

Additionally, it's worth noting that election fraud cases often involve absentee ballots.

The danger posed to voters by such ballots, which are voted outside the supervision of election officials and outside the observation of poll watchers in unsecure settings, is shown by a video that has just surfaced from Escondido, California.

A local resident, David Sprouse, filmed an individual walking through his neighborhood last week stealing mail—including absentee ballots—from his home and other houses.

And the Virginia State Board of Elections had to send out a press release warning voters that six Richmond-area mailboxes—which may have contained absentee ballots—were broken into over the first weekend in October.

Other threats to the security of voting by mail are coming to light.

Take Hudson County, New Jersey. A postal worker was arrested for discarding mail after an investigation conducted by the U.S. Department of Justice found more than 1,800 pieces of mail, including 99 absentee ballots, in a dumpster. Fortunately, these ballots were recovered and forwarded to their intended recipients. Unfortunately, this is not an isolated incident.

Thomas Cooper, a postal worker, pleaded guilty to obscuring, crossing out, and changing at least five party affiliations on absentee ballot request forms back in July during the West Virginia primary.

More Examples of Election Fraud Prove the Left Is in Denial About It

In Manatee County, Florida, Larry Wiggins, a registered Democrat, was arrested for requesting an absentee ballot for his late wife, who passed away in 2018. Though Wiggins claims he was simply “testing the system,” he is now facing third-degree felony charges.

In Texas, four people, including a Gregg County commissioner, were arrested last month in connection with their alleged involvement in a vote-harvesting scheme that was uncovered by the state Attorney General’s Office. Commissioner Shannon Brown, Marlena Jackson, Charlie Burns, and DeWayne Ward are facing more than 130 felony charges, including organizing an illegal vote-harvesting scheme, illegal voting, fraudulent use of absentee ballot applications, unlawful possession of absentee ballots, and election fraud in connection with the 2018 general election, which Brown won by only five votes.

Another case out of the Lone Star State involves a mayoral candidate for the city of Carrollton. Zul Mirza Mohamed is alleged to have forged at least 84 voter registration forms for unwitting residents of Denton County, and then obtained absentee ballots in their names without their knowledge using a virtual mailbox and a false identity.

The Texas Attorney General’s Office states that at the time of his arrest, Mohamed was completing more fraudulent mail-in ballot applications.

There are also multiple reports of problems being caused by election officials using inaccurate, error-filled voter registration lists to mail out absentee ballots. Those include:

- A German journalist who reports that he received three ballots at his residence in Washington, D.C., for the previous tenant, who moved five years ago; the landlady, who now lives in Puerto Rico; and the landlady’s deceased husband.
- New Jersey residents across the state reporting that they have received absentee ballots for their deceased relatives.
- Clerical errors that sent 1,400 Virginia voters two mail-in ballots for the general election. Close to 100,000 New York City voters receiving mail-in ballots with incorrect names and addresses.
- An acquaintance of one of the writers living in Washington, D.C., who received five ballots in the mail—two for him, one for his roommate, and two for individuals who haven’t lived at his address for years. Those ballots can be seen here:

This summary of recent cases doesn’t even cover the 1,000 voters referred to law enforcement officials in Georgia for voting twice in that state’s June primary (once in person and a second time with an absentee ballot); or the former Democratic congressman and erstwhile political consultant indicted in Philadelphia on charges of bribing an election official to stuff the ballot box with fraudulent votes in multiple elections; or the illegal aliens indicted in North Carolina for illegally registering and voting.

While many on the left dismiss these threats and insist that voting by mail has no potential for fraud, or that other types of fraud just don’t happen, these stories continue to break, dispelling that narrative.

These cases should be investigated and prosecuted, and reforms should be initiated that remedy the vulnerabilities in our voter registration and election system that will prevent and deter these types of actions from occurring in the future.

No matter who the American people elect, it should be done in a fair, free, and secure process.

The Legacy of Obama and Biden: Weaponizing

BY:Opinion by Jeff Davidson, October 25, 2020

Contrast the Trump/Pence ticket running for re-election with the last time an incumbent ticket ran for re-election: Obama/Biden in 2012. For most of our history, the press has served as a Democracy's child, willing to tell the truth about situations as they unfold. Then, Barack Obama and Joe Biden were elected.

Either because Obama was the first African American president, or the mainstream media was so steeped in their own ideology, they abdicated their position for eight years running, and since then.

From Magnifying Glass to Feigned Disinterest

With Bush/Cheney, the mainstream media covered every infraction, error, and misspoken word and then magnified the issue endlessly. With Trump/Pence, the constant dissection and distortion, 24/7/365, has risen to unimaginable heights.

For the first five years after Obama/Biden took office, the mainstream press treated them with kid gloves and did not pursue anything controversial, at least not for long. Then, their transgressions became so egregious that mainstream media was finding it nearly impossible to continue to shield him. The list of their sordid policies, botched programs, gerrymandering of our democratic process, and outright fraud and deception was ample.

Had Bush/Cheney been at the helm of the IRS targeting of political groups, let alone Fast and Furious, Black Panther voter intimidation, the Benghazi cover-up, the Affordable Care Act's website debacle, the Gulf Oil Spill, the National Security Agency's snooping, the General Motors recall, the Veterans' Administration scandal, the Bergdahl swap, the border debacle, the ISIS menace, etc, the headlines would be non-stop.

The Most Dangerous Change

Cleta Mitchell is a prominent Washington, D.C. attorney representing many clients who had been victimized by IRS criminal conduct. She previously served as a Democrat in the Oklahoma House of Representatives from 1976 to 1984. In her testimony before Congress, she asserted that the Obama/Biden administration was responsible for 'lies upon lies' covering up the multifarious, politically inspired wrongdoing of the IRS.

Mitchell regarded the politicization of the IRS as the most dangerous change in her lifetime and perhaps in the history of the U.S. because Obama/Biden did liberals' bidding and the press was willing to endure a wide variety of their non-democratic, dangerous practices. Thus, we experienced government intrusion in unprecedented ways, picking sides in the long-term debate between conservatives and liberals and ensuring that liberals win, as happened in the 2012 election.

Mitchell notes, "The charge that Richard Nixon attempted to misuse the IRS" for political purposes was included in the second of the three articles of impeachment against him. Nixon sought to weaponize the IRS, but his efforts were futile. "By contrast with Nixon's failures to misuse the IRS, the IRS have very effectively screwed Obama/Biden's political opponents..."

We have yet to learn the full story about what Barack and Joe knew and when they knew it. Late one Friday, before the Father's day weekend, the IRS "announced" that it had lost 28 months worth of Lois Lerner's emails... after 12 months of looking. In other words, the incriminating communications that the Senate investigating committee had requested "couldn't" be found. This obstruction of justice, in a democracy, is intolerable.

In any other era, Lerner, an Obama/Biden devotee, would already be serving hard time. Instead, for eight years she's been enjoying her well-paid retirement, funded by you.

Contorting History

The typical uninformed voter perks up a couple weeks before an election. Such voters find their way by what appears on the front page of news sites, morning newspapers, morning talk shows, etc. Imagine that the Watergate Commission, led by Sam Ervin, investigated a Democratic president. Wait... would the Commission even have been formed?

Obama/Biden's politicization of the IRS, and our federal agencies in general, which should otherwise be completely non-partisan and non-biased, was an assault on our civilization. The utter contortion of our democracy that we experienced with their Attorney General, Eric Holder, was a sad legacy to leave. Holder stepped over legal and constitutional lines so often that the line faded. His rap sheet is long and involved.

None of the transgressions of Richard Nixon, Bill Clinton, or George W. Bush come close to what Obama and Biden did and for which the mainstream media turned a blind eye. Donald Trump and Mike Pence have done nothing on the order of these Democrat contortions. Liberal icon Noam Chomsky summed it up well when he said the Obama administration's attacks on civil liberties "go well beyond anything I would have anticipated, and they don't seem easy to explain."

It has been said that Trump is the
GREAT DIVIDER

- More than 70 of the DEMOCRATS didn't show up for his inauguration? He hadn't even been president yet, and 70+ Democrats boycotted the event. Is that when Trump divided America?
- 19 minutes after Trump was inaugurated, the Washington Post declared the impeachment campaign has started? Was that when Trump divided America?
- Nancy Pelosi ripped up Trump's State of the Union speech right in front of the world, showing complete disrespect for the President of the United States? Is that when Trump divided America?
- America had to endure, 3 years and over 40 million dollars spent on trying to prove that Trump only won because of Russian Collusion and not because America voted him in, and then 17 Democrats did everything in their power to prove that there was Russian Collusion...and came up with ZERO...? Was that when Trump divided America?

Think for yourselves
Who is really dividing America?

A Harley Biker is sitting on his Harley, drinking a beer, by the Zoo in Washington, DC when he sees a little girl leaning into the lion's cage.

Suddenly, the lion grabs her by the collar of her jacket and tries to pull her inside to slaughter her, under the eyes of her screaming parents.

The biker jumps off his Harley, runs to the cage and hits the lion square on the nose with a powerful punch. Whimpering from the pain the lion jumps back letting go of the girl, and the biker brings the girl to her terrified parents, who thank him endlessly. A reporter has watched the whole event.

The reporter said to the Harley rider says, "Sir, this was the most gallant and bravest thing I've seen a man do in my whole life."

The Harley rider replies, "Why, it was nothing, really, the lion was behind bars. I just saw this little kid in danger, and acted as I felt right."

The reporter says, "Well, I'll make sure this won't go unnoticed. I'm a journalist, you know, and tomorrow's paper will have this story on the front page. So, what do you do for a living, and what political affiliation do you have?"

The biker replies "I'm a U.S. Marine, a Republican and I'm voting for Trump."
The journalist leaves.

The following morning the biker buys the paper to see if it indeed brings news of his actions, and reads, on the front page: "U.S. MARINE ASSAULTS AFRICAN IMMIGRANT & STEALS HIS LUNCH"

And THAT pretty much sums up the media's approach to the news these days! ☹

To be a Democrat today, you have to believe...

Copied from Mike Huckabee's

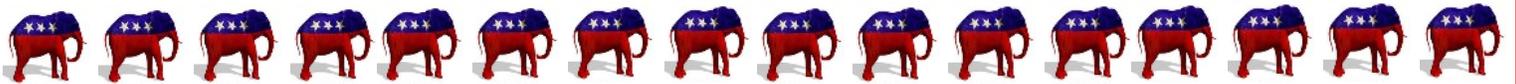

1. That a pre-born human baby is not a human being deserving of protection from killing, and neither is a baby that was born 10 minutes ago if the mother decides she doesn't want to keep it.
2. That capitalism, which has lifted hundreds of millions of people out of poverty and despair worldwide, is evil; but socialism, which has caused the oppression, impoverishment, starvation, and death of hundreds of millions of people over the past century, is the only hope of the future.
3. That the best solution for rioting, looting, arson, and violence in the streets is to defund the police.
4. That all the gains in the economy under Trump were really caused by Obama, but the worldwide economic crash following China's unleashing of a pandemic was caused by Trump.
5. Trump has a plan to rig the next election that involves making the Obama Administration remove thousands of mailboxes several years ago. Also, that the Post Office is removing little-used mailboxes in Oregon because the key to Trump's reelection is for him to win Oregon.
6. And on that subject, that nobody ever complained about the US Post Office being slow, inefficient, and unreliable until Trump was elected.
7. That America is an oppressive, racist, white supremacist nation that's the root of all evil in the world and its culture is inferior to that of other nations, including the many nations where people are willing to risk their lives just for the chance to come to America.
8. That Trump built "cages for children" on the border during the Obama Administration.
9. That viruses spread like wildfire at church services, but not at crowded protest rallies for leftwing causes. Also, viruses spread at bars that serve chips, but not at bars that serve sandwiches. Because "science!"
10. That people with male genitals are women just because they say they are, but people who say that actually having female genitals makes them women are intolerant, transphobic bigots.
11. Also, hospitals must be forced to give gynecological exams to "women" with male genitals, and taxpayers forced to pay for abortions for them.
12. Again on that subject, that someone born male who developed a muscular masculine physique before deciding he was a girl has no unfair physical advantage in sports over the much smaller teenage girl whose face (s)he is crushing into the wrestling mat.
13. That Trump botched the response to COVID-19 by xenophobically shutting down travel from China and crashing the economy with a shutdown, but Democrats would have prevented both the pandemic and the crash by not stopping travel from China and shutting down the economy sooner, harder and longer. Also, it's absolutely impossible for Trump to keep people from crossing our border, but he could have kept a virus from crossing our border.
14. That an acceptable way to express how much you care about black lives is to burn black neighborhoods, loot black-owned businesses, and tear down statues of abolitionist leaders. Also, that all black lives matter except those of black cops, black Republicans, and black pre-born babies.
15. That free healthcare is a right, free college is a right, free food is a right, a guaranteed paycheck is a right, and citizenship for illegal immigrants is a right, but free speech and freedom of religion are not rights.

16. That the people who presided over the rise of ISIS, the Iraq and Afghan wars, a nuclear Iran and North Korea, and even Iran falling to the Mullahs in the first place, are trusted diplomatic professionals, while the man who crushed ISIS, dealt with Iran and North Korea, and crafted a historic Middle East peace agreement is a dangerous amateur who's destroying our foreign policy.
17. That disproven rumors are evidence that Trump colluded with Russia to undermine a presidential election, but Democrats paying Russians for disproven rumors and using them as "evidence" to launch a Deep State coup is NOT collusion with Russia to undermine a presidential election.
18. That 2 + 2 only equals 4 because of white supremacy.
19. That there are 57 genders but only one acceptable political viewpoint.
20. That burning a flag is protected free speech, but objecting to someone burning a flag is not.

Nothing screams irony as much as Joe Biden- who has said he wants to end the oil industry- holding a drive-by rally. Did he limit it to all-electric cars with no plastic components?

And In 1933...
Submitted by a Faithful Our Town Reader

In 1933 Hitler appointed Hermann Goring Minister of the Interior. His first orders were to defund and eliminate police departments so that they would not interfere with his Brown Shirts whose mission it was to riot, burn, beat up and kill citizens in an effort to sway the elections.

Sound familiar?

"Do you know how many times the word 'woman' is mentioned in the Constitution?
Zero. That is unacceptable."
- Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA)

Rep. Swalwell, do you know how many times the word "man" is mentioned in the Constitution?
Zero.
Your ignorance is unacceptable (and woefully chronic).

Thanks to Sid Miller for this posting! It is right on!

Let's look at this man for a moment. He is a 74 year old man coming back home from work at 2:00 am, while most men his age are retired and living in their vacation homes. He comes back after a long day that probably started before the sun rose and gets back home exhausted with his tie open and hat in his hand feeling that an accomplished day is finally over.

That amazing man is the age of many people's fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers. This man just came back home from work, for you, and for me.

President Trump left his massive gold covered mansion where he could have retired happily and play golf all day long. Yet this man put his wealth aside and went to work for free, for $1 a year, for you, for me, for us, and for the United States of America. While other presidents became rich during and after their presidency, this man Lost over 2 Billion dollars of his wealth during these short 4 years of his life.

He put aside his amazing retirement and lifestyle just to get ambushed every single day by the Media and the Radical Left that trash this man who works for them until 1:00 am for free!

He doesn't do what he does for the money or for the power, as he already had that. He is doing what he does so that the American People will be safe in their homes, that their schools will get better, that they will be able to find good jobs or start new businesses with greater ease, that they will be able to keep a few more dollars in their pockets at the end of the month, while other presidents before him made sure to keep digging in those same pockets and empty them for taxes.

Look at this picture again, that man is at the age of many of your fathers, grandfathers or maybe even You! Where is the Respect that should be shown? Where is the Honor? Where is the Appreciation? Can one be so Blind as to not see the good that this man is doing for you and your family?

Can you not see all of his work on behalf of minority groups and the unborn in America? Yet you keep calling him a racist!

Can you be that one sided as to not see how much this country has developed in the last 4 years?

President Donald J. Trump, I want to thank you with all my heart. I am so sorry for the blind hatred that you have been made to endure. You are not perfect. No one certainly is! You have made many mistakes in your life. Who hasn't? You are a good and generous man. I know this instinctively. What I don't understand and think about often is what kind of people can be so hateful in their hearts as to spew such contempt and vile, not just at you but at your family too? Or the people that constantly mock you and make you the butt of jokes because you're not a professional politician, and that you're not adept in speech making and bold faced lying. Or the people who have nothing better to do but to attack your wife and young son. These same people believe and are so sure that they have not been manipulated by the Press or the Media. They truly believe that their hatred is really their own. Yet when asked to explain why, many of these same people cannot articulate the reasons as to why.

What has happened in our great country? Why can't these people realize that they have been manipulated and brainwashed and led by such a deeply rooted Evil force that wishes nothing better than to bring down our Great Republic. "The Shining City on a Hill." The American People are a great people, but they are in a bad place right now, both in their hearts, and in their souls. May God help us! May the Lord heal the hearts and minds of the people of this great country! Trump is not the problem. #TRUMP2020. #saveOURCOUNTRY

Prior to 1983

Prior to 1983, social security payments were not taxable, at all.

In 1983, Joe Biden voted in favor of taxing 50% of social security payments - and it passed.

In 1993, Joe Biden voted to raise the percentage taxed on social security from 50% to 85%.

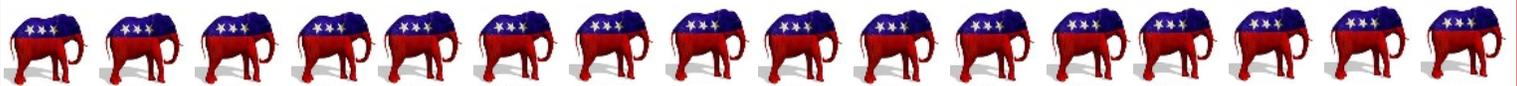

Joe Biden is not a friend to working folks - and certainly not to retirees.

His voting record on social security over the years is one slap in the face to retirees after another.

Now he wants to tax our 401k's and IRA's (it's on page 78 of the Dems' platform) and ....

He also wants to introduce a 3% annual tax on our homes.

The record of Joe Biden shows he never misses an opportunity to raise a tax or introduce a tax to hurt the middle class and retirees.
