From The Community Spiritual Director

My name is Jim Dannelly, Blue Lake Walk to Emmaus #1, Table of John

Obedience to God's Call

The theme of a series of daily devotionals that I have recently been reading is "The Call to Ministry." The scripture passages for the devotionals have been God's call to Moses and Isaiah, Jesus' calling His disciples, God's call to Paul on the road to Damascus. In each instance God has a special task he wants these persons to do as He seeks to accomplish His holy purposes in the world of their times.

In each instance the key to these people's responses to God's call is their willingness to be obedient. But their obedience serves a purpose beyond their simply doing what He asks them. Their obedience serves to heighten their awareness of His presence in their lives and leads them into a closer relationship with Him.

In my devotional book there is this quote from Albert Day:

"Obedience is indispensable. Not to a static code, however helpful that might be at times. But obedience to God, who is present with us in every situation, and is speaking to us all the time. Every obedience, however small (if any obedience is ever small) quickens our sensitivity to Him and our capacity to understand Him and so makes more real our sense of His presence."

From "The Captivating Presence"

God calls each of us to serve His purposes. He calls us through the needs of our families and friends, through the needs of hurting people around us. He calls us through His church and its work in our communities and across the world. He calls us through our work together in Emmaus.

From the Community Lay Director

Jerry Goodwin, Blue Lake Walk to Emmaus #20, Table of Thomas.

I would like to wish everyone a happy new year and hope that you are all ready to enjoy serving our Lord Jesus Christ this year. We will have lots of opportunities to serve through the 10 walks that are scheduled. The new board members are in place with their work areas assigned. Visit the web page to see who is handling the area that you want to serve in this year.

Don't wait to be asked. Volunteer early so that you can get the job that you enjoy. Remember that no position is more important than another. It takes the whole body for completion. You may email the people handling the work areas by going to the web page - <http://www.caew.org> -, clicking on the "click here for work area definitions," and then clicking on the work area.

Thanks in advance for your service. Wasn't the Celebration great!! Thanks to all who organized, cooked, led in praise, and set up/took down. I know that Donna and I had a great time, and I am sure that all of the attendees did too. We had in the neighborhood of 350 people there. We plan to have another one this summer to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Central Alabama Emmaus Community. Watch for details as the summer approaches.

Speaking of anniversaries, this year marks the 25th anniversary of the Walk to Emmaus sponsored by the Upper Room. An international celebration is planned for July 24-27, 2003 at the Nashville Convention Center in Nashville, Tennessee, USA. Begin making plans now to attend this grand reunion. We look forward to a festive fellowship of people from around the world who have participated in the Emmaus movement. Worship, music, and dynamic presentations will resound as we celebrate the many colors of God's grace as they shine through The Walk to Emmaus.

We had our first Lay Director training on January 18. This year's Lay Directors attended and were instructed by former lay directors in the steps to follow organizing a walk. Top of the list, of course, is concentrated prayer. We did the typical Emmaus things - devotion, praise singing, talks and, of course, refreshments. Thanks to all of you who worked to put this together, those who presented, and those who provided the refreshments. And many thanks to those who have agreed to give of themselves to lead our Walks this year. I ask that we all pray fervently for these 10 servant leaders.

I look forward to seeing you serve our Lord this year through the Walk to Emmaus and hope to get an Emmaus hug from each of you.

Our obedience to His call is essential to the fulfilling of His purposes of meeting needs, of proclaiming His word, of building His kingdom. But our obedience is essential to our personal awareness of Him, knowing His presence and the peace and joy that it brings, in an ever-deepening way.

I trust that each day you look and listen for God's call on your life and that you pray for faith to be obedient to His call. He will use your hands for the accomplishment of His work. You need to know His presence for the solace of your soul.

BUBBASAYS:

What is this I hear about a "short list" for Pilgrims?
Signed, Anxious Sponsor

Dear A.S. During 2002, the Board passed a motion that is in addition to the regular Pilgrim list that contacts Pilgrims in the order of the application received date, there is a method to fill the openings that occur in the final two weeks before a Walk.

1. The sponsor can request a position for their Pilgrim on the short list, but they are agreeing that their Pilgrim WILL attend and they will be ready- even up to one day before the Walk.

There are always a few spaces that come open in the final days before a Walk, so we encourage you to use this means to enable your Pilgrim to attend a Walk much sooner than using the regular waiting list order, and they will keep their place on the regular waiting list if they are not able to attend the Walk due to lack of space.

2. BUT, if for some reason your Pilgrim fails to accept when called on the short list, you might be jeopardizing your ability to participate in this program in the future, in this particular manner.

At this time, the waiting list is quite long, but it's a wonderful problem to have and you need to keep sponsoring! This is a way to speed up the process, but ONLY if you can both be ready on a days notice.

At the current time, we are mailing 2100 plus news- letters (plus printing, folding, sealing, and labeling). This is not only expensive, but labor intensive. We propose, for those of you who have computer access and an e-mail address, that we will only e-mail the newsletter. We have been trying this on a limited basis and it works very well.

By using e-mail we can not only save money, but add color photos and up-date information and notices in a timely manner. If you have computer access, but no e-mail address, you can still download and print from the web site at caew.org. If you have not already received your newsletter by e-mail, then our community address book may be incorrect as far as your information is concerned. Please contact us at caew.org to change and update information. If snail mail is still your only means of communication with the outside world, we will continue the mailing. WE NEED YOUR HELP. Please let us know your preference.
