Nonno's Story

"Nonno" was born in Naples, Italy in 1929. As a young man, Nonno began his culinary career working on luxurious Italian cruise ships eventually becoming a chief butcher. Nonno sailed the world for 18 years until his brothers' longshoreman in New York convinced him to move to the United States. Nonno moved to Brooklyn, New York in 1961 and started his family. He worked in multiple pizzeria's around Brooklyn, New York City, and New Jersey to support his growing family.

Nonno (Grandfather)

In 1974, Nonno moved to Southern California and worked as a pizza maker in the San Gabriel Valley for 30 years where his local community affectionately nicknamed him "The Chief". Nonno left us in 2007, but his pizza making legacy lives on. We are proud to continue the family tradition of making everyone's favorite food: A PIZZ. However you like it: by the slice or the whole pie with "sul muzzarell" (cheese only) or "cca robba ncopp" (with toppings) our family is proud to continue the legacy of Nonno.

Fun fact's: Nonno made approximately 1,872,000 student specials, over 1 million pie's, 650,000 sandwiches, and various salads.

Thank you for your support,
