CODE OF ETHICS

We ask our members to endeavor to comply with Ethical Guidelines based on the following:

To maintain the best possible standards of health and quality of life for their dogs.

To breed only from sound stock representative of the AKC breed standard and free of known health defects.

To exercise every possible precaution as to the placement of puppies and to only sell puppies and/or older dogs to homes where there is a reasonable expectation of a healthy and happy life and never knowingly to sell to commercial dog wholesale or retail dealers or their agents. To take back or help to re-home any unwanted Cavalier they have bred.

To be considerate of others including good sportsmanship, helping novices, being truthful in representing your own dogs for sale or breeding, attempting to breed and show to the standard as approved by the American Kennel Club, Inc.

To abide by rules set forth by:

The American Kennel Club

The State of Florida

Show-giving Entity

Complaints made by non-member that reflect a violation, as determined by the Board of Directors, of the above Code of Ethics will be forwarded to the American Kennel Club, Inc.

Repeated offences will be reviewed by the Board of Directors and may result in suspension and/or dismissal from the Mid Florida Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club.
