Dear Friends;

Please join us in this once in a lifetime opportunity The Passion Play of Sordevolo: a reenactment of the Passion of the Christ that has taken place in this small town every year since the beginning of the 18th century. An impressive, unique, and moving theatrical spectacle, more than 700 of the town's residents volunteer as actors and transform the ancient streets of Sordevolo into a reconstructed corner of Jerusalem circa 33 A.D. Work has already begun on this three and a half hour performance that will take place next in the Summer of 2015.

We are presenting this trip to the Passion Play in conjunction with a tour of this northern Alpine region of Piedmont, Italy; visiting such places as Turin and its Cathedral that houses the Holy Shroud, which will be on display until the end of June and we are scheduled to visit, and the Savoy Palace. We will then head westward to spend some days on the great glacier Alpine lake of Italy; Lake Como. We sincerely hope you can join us on this wonderful trip.

Sincerely,

Fratelli & Company Group Travel

Day 3—Biella / Turin / Biella

A highlight of the day will be the Cathedral and Museum of the Holy Shroud—this sacred relic was last on public display in the spring of 2010. Later we will visit the Royal Palace of Turin or Palazzo Reale. It was the royal palace of the House of Savoy, the last King of Italy; exiled in 1946 and properties seized by the State after World War II. In the reign of Emmanuel Filiberto, Duke of Savoy (1528–1580), the site was once part of an old Bishops palace in the center of the new capital of Savoy;Turin. The old Bishops Palace thus became the seat of power and was greatly expanded by Emmanuel Filiberto in order to house his ever expanding collections of art, animals, marbles and furniture. Emmanuel Filiberto died in Turin August 1580 and the Savoyard throne was handed on to his son. The Chapel of the Holy Shroud, with its spiral dome, was built in the west wing of the palace, joining the apse of the cathedral of St. John the Baptist to accommodate the famous Shroud of Turin which belonged to the family from 1453 until 1946. Dinner and overnight in Biella. (B,D)

Day 4 — Biella/Roppolo/Ricetto Di Candelo/Biella

This morning after breakfast, we travel to the village of Roppolo to visit a castle on the hills overlooking Lake Viverone and to visit its "Serra" wine cellar for a tasting of Piemonte's sparkling wines and grappa. We then continue to Ricetto di Candelo, a Medieval fortified village built between the 13th and 14th centuries to protect food supplies, as well as the farmers' possessions in times of danger. Lunch is included in a typical local restaurant. While walking in the long "rue" (streets) paved with river cobblestones, between the high walls and the vigilant towers, time seems to have stopped and visitors can lose themselves among hidden courtyards, frescoed walls and dark storerooms of objects which are evidence of how hard people worked long ago. Overnight in Biella. (B,L)

Day 5 —Biella / Oropa Sordevolo & The Passion Play

An exciting day of discovery awaits you as we drive to the Sacro Monte di Oropa (Sacred Mountain of Oropa). It is one of the nine Sacred Mountains of Piedmont and Lombardy; a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The 12 chapels, plus another seven nearby, create a devotional path and inside each chapel is a depiction of scenes of the Virgin Mary's life. The path culminates on top of the hill with the Crowning of Mary. After visiting the sanctuary, we return to Biella. Enroute a stop will be made at a local grappa mill where we can enjoy a grappa tasting with some treats. Return to Biella for some free time before we depart for Sordevolo & The Passion Play, also home to the Church of Santa Marta and its museum. This evening we will be awed by the Passion Play staged and performed by Sordevolo's villagers every 5 years. The performance takes place in a 4,000 square meter open space; a reconstructed corner of Jerusalem dating back to 33 A.D: Herod's Palace, Sanhedrim, Pontius Pilate's Praetorium, the Garden of Gethsemane, the Cenacle, and Calvary. Prior to the play dinner (included) will be at a local restaurant. Overnight in Biella (B,D)

From Como city, you can take the "funicular" up to Brunate, high up above the lake. Brunate is a quaint little village where all the houses and buildings resemble Swiss Chalets.
