

In Memory of Tom Hossfeld DDS

Thomas (Tom) Lee Hossfeld, DDS, passed on Friday, August 6, 2021. Tom was born in Enid, Oklahoma, the eldest of three siblings. Tom is survived by his wife of 54 years, Janie L. Nuñez, brother Dennis Tath, and sister Vicki.

Tom graduated from NAU where he played on the varsity golf team and was a member of the Blue Key Honor Society. After NAU, he attended the University of Washington and taught junior high math and science. He then attended the University of Washington School of Dentistry and joined the Navy reserves during that time. After his Navy service he setup his dentistry practice in Tucson AZ.

In 1967, Tom acquired his first Scottie. He soon added Dandie Dinmont Terriers and Standard Wirehaired Dachshunds to his breeding and showing hobby.

Tom was an AKC judge approved for all Terrier breeds as well as 19 Hound breeds and Best in Show.

Tom was a hard-working member of many local & national specialty and all-breed clubs. He was awarded the AKC Outstanding Sportsmanship medallion by Canada del Oro KC and the Silver Service medallion from the Scottish Terrier Club of America.

Tom was also very artistic and created unique jewelry for Janie as well as bronze statues. He loved fly fishing and tied his own flies and made his own rods.

Tom had a wonderful sense of humor, enjoyed making tamales at Christmas time with Janie's family, and loved a rousing political debate!

We will all miss him dearly!
