251 from the six retirement options described in this section.

252 (b) Options Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six are modifications of the Option One

254 (2) The Option One benefit is an annual allowance calculated as follows:

255 (a) If the retiree is at least 65 years [~~of age~~ old] or has accrued at least [~~25~~] 20 years of

264 (c) (i) Years of service includes any fractions of years of service to which the retiree 265 may be entitled.

267 service credit is within 1/10 of one year of the total years of service credit required for 268 retirement, the retiree shall be considered to have the total years of service credit required for 269 retirement.

270 (d) An Option One allowance is only payable to the member during the member's 271 lifetime.

272 (3) The allowance payable under Options Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six is calculated 273 by reducing an Option One benefit based on actuarial computations to provide the following:

274 (a) Option Two is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 275 retiree, and, if the retiree receives less in annuity payments than the amount of the retiree's 276 member contributions, the remaining balance of the retiree's member contributions shall be 277 paid in accordance with Sections 49-11-609 and 49-11-610.

278 (b) Option Three is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 279 retiree, and, upon the death of the retiree, the same reduced allowance is paid to and throughout 280 the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

281 (c) Option Four is a reduced allowance paid to and throughout the lifetime of the 282 retiree, and upon the death of the retiree, an amount equal to 1/2 of the retiree's allowance is 283 paid to and throughout the lifetime of the retiree's lawful spouse at the time of retirement.

284 (d) Option Five is a modification of Option Three so that if the lawful spouse at the 285 time of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the 286 time of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the 287 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

288 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
289 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

290 (ii) notification and supporting documentation for the death are received by the office,
291 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
292 after the spouse's death.

293 (e) Option Six is a modification of Option Four so that if the lawful spouse at the time 294 of retirement predeceases the retiree, an allowance equivalent to the amount payable at the time 295 of initial retirement under Option One shall be paid to the retiree for the remainder of the 296 retiree's life, beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the:

297 (i) spouse died, if notification and supporting documentation for the death are received
298 by the office within 90 days of the spouse's death; or

299 (ii) notification and supporting documentation for the death are received by the office,
300 if the notification and supporting documentation are received by the office more than 90 days
301 after the spouse's death.

302 (4) (a) If a retiree under Option One dies within 120 days after the retiree's retirement
303 date, the retirement is canceled and the death shall be considered as that of a member before 304 retirement.

305 (b) Any payments made to the retiree shall be deducted from the amounts due to the 306 beneficiary.

307 (5) (a) If a retiree retires under either Option Five or Six and subsequently divorces, the 308 retiree may elect to convert the benefit to an Option One benefit at the time of divorce, if there 309 is no court order filed in the matter.

310 (b) A conversion to an Option One benefit under this Subsection (5) begins on the first 311 day of the month following the month in which the notification and supporting documentation

312 for the divorce are received by the office.

313 (6) A retiree may not choose payment of an allowance under a retirement option 314 described in this section that is not applicable to that retiree, including because the retiree did 315 not make member contributions or does not have a lawful spouse at the time of retirement.
