

KENNETH K. "BOB" RICHMOND

1908 - 1989

Kenneth K. "Bob" Richmond, age 80 of Kissimmee, Fla., formerly of Caseville, passed away Feb. 26 in Humana Hospital, Kissimmee.

He was born Oct. 11, 1908 in Caseville, son of James A. and Ida Mae (McGill) Richmond. He graduated from Bad Axe High School in 1928 and was a foreman for Ford Motor Company for many years. He married Sara Mae Sedtler on Sept. 17, 1934 and the couple lived in Detroit until 1954, when they returned to Caseville. They moved to Florida in 1985.

Mr. Richmond is survived by his wife, Sara; two daughters and sons-in-law, Virginia and Lee Proctor, Melbourne, Fla. and Betty and Peter Mosshart, Ypsilanti; eight grandchildren, Vickie Tipling, Brook Rodriguez, Beth Hendley, Holly Floyd, Christopher Proctor, Clay Proctor, Laurie Walker and Jeffrey Wurst; 14 great-grandchildren; one sister, Elizabeth Grassmann, Cass City and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Clifton C., Robert Royal and James J. Richmond.

A memorial service was conducted March 1 in Kissimmee, Fla. by Pastor Dan Hendley. A Michigan memorial service will be held at a later date.

Memorials may be offered to the Good Samaritan Nursing Center, 1500 Southgate, Kissimmee, Fla. 32741 for the "Kenneth Richmond LPN Scholarship Fund."