

Helicopter Tours from Athens

*Athens, Corinth Canal,
Epidauros, Nauplio,
Mykines, Aegina*

In this helicopter tour you will explore many highlights of ancient Greece.

You will also have the opportunity to see the marvelous Corinth Canal, an incredible feat of engineering. See from the air the evocative ruins of ancient Corinth an ancient Greek site and also a site important to early Christianity, where Paul preached.

Enjoy the view of the ruins of Mykines.

An impressive ancient city, according to Homer "a city rich in gold". A view of priceless treasures as described by Homer in Iliad. Also you can enjoy the beautiful coast of Nauplia.

Have a bird's eye view of the spectacular amphitheater of Epidauros. Admire the open air theater, a magnificent setting that can still seat 14,000 spectators, world famous for its outstanding acoustics.