

Author Bio

Gene Stamper is an aspiring author who has been writing since he can remember. Stamper believes that he can say things through the pen that he could not express with his mouth. This allows him to write thrilling stories and inspiring songs and poems. He writes both fiction and nonfiction and lives in Columbus, Ohio. His book; Truly yOUrs: My Experience is his actual experience at Ohio University that takes the reader through his life as a student. One who entered as an eager boy and came out, a wise man who survived an educational roller coaster ride. Share in his personal life changing experiences that made him grow up quickly, from homelessness to winning. Gene can tell a passionate story because writing is his passion. Look for more from author Gene Stamper.

