President's Message

Presidents Page:

It turns out that the migration of the Potomac Antique Aero Squadron Fly-in happened not a moment too soon. Horn Pint Aerodrome is closed and has already been removed from the sectional chart. True to form, the third weekend of May would have been a wash out in Cambridge. The forecast for Massey is partly sunny and mid 80s all week.

This year we will start having the Fly -in at Massey; new place, new date. Hopefully we will flourish at Massey with it's longer and wider runway, lack of encroaching trees, a date less prone to rain and the camaraderie of fellow old airplane aficionados.

This move gives us a natural opportunity to break free of the "Horn Point" moniker and reassert that it is the Potomac Antique Aero Squadron antique Fly-in, held at Massey Aerodrome. We lost our identity as an organization and basked in the association with the history of Horn Point over 44 years. It is time to reassert our identity.

Friday promises nice weather and an almost nonexistent set up followed by dinner at the Kitty Knight House in Georgetown, MD on the banks of the Sassafras. I look forward to seeing everyone for a great Fly-in with old & new friends, Antique Aircraft and beautiful weather.

Work Party

The prevailing attitude is that there will be a lot less work and a lot more party than we are accustomed to, but nonetheless, there will still be a few things that need to be done to set up for Saturday. We will be gathering around noon to do those items and then discuss any last-minute business. After that, I guess we will hang out and enjoy the day and the good company until we relocate to the Kitty Knight House around 6pm.
