

EXHIBIT “ _____ ”

Loving and Caring Order

Each parent is ORDERED to encourage and nurture the relationship between the child and the other parent by encouraging the child to interact with the other parent, taking good faith measures to ensure visitation and refraining from doing anything to undermine the relationship between the other parent and the child. Each parent is ORDERED to do everything within his or her power to create in the child’s mind a loving and caring feeling towards the other parent. It is further ORDERED that each parent is permanently enjoined from speaking badly or in a disparaging fashion about the other parent to anyone in any way in the children’s presence. It is the intention of the Court that this provision be enforceable by contempt of Court.

The Court further notes that each parent has been admonished by the Court that their failure to act in accordance with this specific order of the Court shall be punishable by any and all remedies available for contempt of Court, including, but not limited to, the imposition of a fine up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) and/or confinement in the jail for up to six (6) months for each violation.

Each parent is FURTHER ORDERED to notify the other parent immediately, in writing, of any and all significant events pertaining to the child, including but not limited to:

1. any and all medical, dental and psychological conditions of the child;
2. the identity, including name, address and telephone number, of any physician, dentist or psychologist providing treatment to the child;
3. any and all medications, if any, prescribed for the child, including, but not limited to, the time the medication was last given to the child;
4. any matter relating to the child’s educational status, including school activities, grades, homework, field trips, disciplinary slips, progress notes, teacher conferences and the like;
5. any matter relating to the extra-curricular activities of the child, including, but not limited to, the times and places of such activities;
6. vacation plans which include the child, including the itinerary and location of the child and a telephone number where the child may be reached, if the child is to be absent from the residence of a parent for more than twenty-four consecutive hours during any period of possession by a parent; and
7. any and all other matters which affect or impact the welfare of the child.
