

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Conducts Consular Outreach Mission in Victoria, British Columbia

15 September 2018 – Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria assists the Consular team, in between her engagements, at the Consulate’s 9th consular outreach mission, which was held at the Comfort Inn & Suites Victoria. Also in the photo is Consul Arlene T. Magno processing a passport application.

POLO-Vancouver Administrative Staff Charmaine T. Mercado (left row, 1st) and Assistant Labor Attaché Violeta J. Buenaventura (left row, 3rd) attend to Filipinos with labor-related queries and provide services at the consular outreach mission held in Victoria.

Consular Assistants Mary Ann Macaranas (right, foreground) and Ryan Macas (left, background) assist applicants during the consular outreach conducted by the Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver in Victoria.

Consular Assistant Jose Paolo Miguel M. Festejo (center) registers an overseas voter, while Collecting Officer Ravinal S. Espiritu (right) processes payments at the consular outreach.

Consul Arlene T. Magno administers the oath of dual citizenship to 12 former Filipino citizens who applied for reacquisition of Philippine citizenship during the consular outreach in Victoria.