Augustus Lutheran Church

An Historic Church for Today's People

FEBRUARY 2020

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Thank you to Pastor Kochenderfer for preaching a wonderful sermon on the Baptism of Our Lord. Thanks, too, to the many people who contributed to the Music fund-raising goal. We met the goal, so we had the great enjoyment of hearing Pastor Martha Kriebel on All Saints Sunday and then Pastor Kochenderfer commemorating one of the great events of Jesus' life and ministry.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 26, 2020. The Ash Wednesday Service starts at 7:00 PM. The confirmands will take a major role in this liturgy as worship leaders. Worshipping with us on Ash Wednesday is a powerful way to begin Lent and a sign of support for our confirmands as they continue to assume a greater adult role in the life and ministry of Augustus.

I would also like to report on our 2020 Stewardship Campaign to date. As of the writing of this newsletter article in mid-January, we have received 78 Commitment Cards for 2020 totaling $131,406 of the $275,000 we need to support our ministry. If you have not returned your Commitment Card, we would be delighted to receive it by the end of February. A copy of the 2020 Commitment Card can be downloaded from the parish web site, www.augustustrappe.org, under the "About Us" tab.

To give some perspective, we have 274 giving units at Augustus. What is a giving unit?

A husband and wife together constitute a one (1) giving unit.

A single adult is counted as a single giving unit.

Confirmed children living who are living at home are each considered a single giving unit.

Add them all together and you get 274 giving units.

Now of the 274 giving units, 74 are confirmed members who are still in school and have not yet entered the adult work force. Therefore, we have 200 adult giving units.

78 of the giving units have submitted a financial Commitment Card for 2020 totaling $131,406 to support our ministries of worship, education, outreach, and helping others.

The remaining 122 giving units must make up the remaining $143,594 if we are to maintain our current level of ministry.

If you are one (1) of the 78, thank you for your written estimate of commitment. If you are one of the remaining 122 adult giving units, we await your commitment.

May the God of glory dwell in you richly and shine brightly on your path.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Weleck

FEBRUARY 2020

February will begin with Scout Sunday on February 2nd. I'm excited that I will be working with the scouts to play along with the bell choir, and sing with the Sunday School children at the 10:30 service that day. It's great to have active scout troops on our campus, and I'm glad for the opportunity for them to help lead worship that day.

On February 22, from 1:00-3:00 PM, the CTM (Collegeville Trappe Ministerium) choir will have its first rehearsal at Augustus. Lauren Exley (St. James, Evansburg) and I are leading this group of singers from throughout Collegeville and Trappe. The choir will sing each Wednesday night during Lent. If you are a tune-ful singer and looking for an opportunity to sing beyond Sunday morning, you are most welcome to join us! We are rehearsing on several Saturday afternoons in February and March. You don't need to be a member of Augustus or any particular church. You don't need to attend every rehearsal and every Wednesday night service. It may be just the opportunity you were looking for.

Did you know....if you want a preview of what the choir is singing each week, go to <https://lauriemueller.com/augustus-music>. And if you'd like to hear some of our past choir anthems, check out my soundcloud channel: <https://soundcloud.com/laurie-mueller-718584629>

Finally, in this sometimes dreary season of winter, I hope you can be refreshed with these words from the great Epiphany hymn, O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright:

Come, precious diamond, light divine,
and deep within our hearts now shine;
there light a flame undying!
In your one body let us be as living branches of a tree,
your life our lives supplying.
Now, though daily
earth's deep sadness may perplex us and distress us,
yet with heav'nly joy you bless us.

~Laurie Mueller

Christian Education

Winter can be long, dark and cold—good thing we in the Church can bask in the light of Christ and the warmth of God’s love! Our Sunday school students will be celebrating Jesus’ teaching and miracles in February, ending with our yearly ice-cream social on Transfiguration Sunday (our mini-“Mardi Gras” just before Lent begins).

On March 1st we’ll meet our prayer pals—adults in the church who are not involved in Sunday school but who care about our children and pray for them during Lent. If you would like to be a prayer pal to a group of extraordinary children, please let me know!

I will be exploring spiritual gifts with our Senior High Youth Group and our soon-to-be confirmed 2nd year confirmands on February 5th. Confirmation is perhaps the first “adult” decision an individual makes. We drive at age 16, vote at 18, and are given full privileges at 21, but at around 14 in most churches, a young person is given an opportunity to confirm for themselves the promises made for them at their baptism. The next step is to discover how God is calling us to live out those promises in the life of the church. We are each given gifts of the Spirit with the expectation we share them with others to strengthen the Church. Take a look at the spiritual gifts listed in Romans 12:6-8 and I Corinthians 12:4-11&28 and think about which have been given to you and how you can use them at Augustus!

Grace & peace,

Sonya Sowards
Coordinator of Faith Development

Notice from the Cemetery Committee

In order to keep pace with inflation, anticipate increased maintenance costs, and provide for the future care of our cemetery, please know that effective January 1, 2020, the cost of graves spaces will be $660.00 each for members and $1,640.00 each for non-members.”

Why do we use ashes on Ash Wednesday?

Ash Wednesday is the Wednesday of the seventh week before Easter and the first day of Lent. The day is named for the practice of imposing ashes, a practice that many Lutheran congregations have found to be a very meaningful part of the Ash Wednesday liturgy.

Using ashes as a sign of repentance is an ancient practice, often mentioned in the Bible (e.g., Jonah 3:5-9; Job 42:6; Jeremiah 6:26; Matthew 11:21). The early Christians adopted the use of ashes from Jewish practice as an external mark of penitence.

Ashes symbolize several aspects of our human existence:

- Ashes remind us of God’s condemnation of sin, as God said to Adam, “Dust you are and to dust you shall return” (Genesis 3:19).
- Ashes suggest cleansing and renewal. They were used anciently in the absence of soap. Even on Ash Wednesday, this most penitential day, we receive ashes in the form of the cross, the same symbol placed on our bodies with water in our baptism. Even in this ashen mark of death, we anticipate the new life of Easter.
- Ashes remind us of the shortness of human life, for it is said as we are buried into the ground or as ashes are placed in a tomb:
“We commit this body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust”
- Ashes are a symbol of our need to repent, confess our sins, and return to God.

Money Matters

Personal Financial Stewardship

A budget is a spending plan. You develop a budget to plan your monthly expenditures. The plan determines in advance how much of your income you are comfortable allocating to each spending area. Your income and spending allocations will be defined by your values and interests.

In developing your budget as a Christian, one of your first tasks will be to examine the priorities that God has directly revealed in his Word. Basically, there are four general budget categories that are clearly mandated: giving, saving, living expenses, and debt repayment.

Giving is part of the budget: God's Word directs us to give him our first and best. In Proverbs 3:9 we read, "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops." The Apostle Paul wrote, "On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with his income" (1 Corinthians 16:2). Giving demonstrates our gratitude for who God is and what he has done for us.

Saving is part of the budget: To prepare for emergencies and to have resources so you can achieve your financial goals, saving is essential. In Proverbs 21:20 God shares his wisdom regarding saving: "In the house of the wise are stores of choice food and oil, but a foolish man devours all he has."

Living expenses are part of the budget: If you have not previously developed a budget, you could be struggling to discover a reasonable allocation for your lifestyle that you can afford. An important first step is to distinguish between what you need versus what you want. Jesus said, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions" (Luke 12:15). What you allocate for your living expenses should be established with the money that is left after giving and saving.

Debt repayment is part of the budget: In Scripture, God warns you to be cautious about debt. God's Word does not forbid you from borrowing money, but it does discourage it. "The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender" (Proverbs 22:7). The Bible is clear as to your responsibility to repay money that you borrow.

In order to avoid dependence on others and to set a good example, you should develop a budget. If you include the four above parts within your budget, you will gain control of your money.

A Gentle Reminder

The generations of faithful Lutherans that have gone before us have left us a great legacy at Augustus Lutheran Church. Please do your part to keep our buildings neat, clean, and presentable to the many friends and visitors we welcome throughout each week of the year.

SENIOR YOUTH GROUP NEWS

SYG

The Senior Youth Group would like to thank everyone who supported our first soup sale of the season. Your support is amazing and much appreciated. We'd also like to thank all those who made soups for us. We'll be having two more soup sales on the 3rd Sunday of February and March. If you have a favorite soup, let us know and we'll see if one of our chefs can make a batch. Also, if you have a recipe and would like to share it, please forward it.

February events include helping out at the Soup Kitchen pasta dinner, meeting with the 8th grade 3 in 1 class to let them know about the SYG and also a Lock In at the church.

The SYG is always looking for new members and leaders. If you have any interest in either, please reach out to any of the current leaders (Cathy, Chris, Joe or Gary). The Senior Youth Group meets on the 1st Wednesday of each month and the 3rd Sunday of each month. Along with our monthly meetings, we also have a monthly activity for the youth.

Lastly, while we travel to Camden, New York to do mission work each year, we understand that there is work to be done in our own community. If you have a project that you need help with, please do not hesitate to ask the SYG to help. Contact us at youth@augustrappe.org or gtwess@comcast.net.

February

Have a Heart

February: the month devoted to love. Stores are filled with heart-shaped boxes of candy and heart-shaped cards and vases of flowers with heart-shaped gift tags. All this is available for the consumer so that he can find the appropriate expression of his devotion to his loved one. If that expression of love has been preceded by a year of thoughtful and loving words and deeds, it is welcomed and cherished by the recipient. If not, it is just an empty ritual, done out of duty rather than true devotion.

Our relationship to the Lord is similar. God, too, desires our sincere devotion, not empty lip service. "The Lord says: 'These people come near to Me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me'" (Isaiah 29:13).

Stewardship is serving, helping, giving, but love is the basis for stewardship. Without love, our good deeds are empty and without merit. The first act of true stewardship is to "love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength" (Deuteronomy 6:5). Jesus called this the most important commandment (Mark 12:29, 30). With that love for the Lord in us, we are enabled to be good stewards. Then we can do acts of good stewardship, acts of true devotion. We are enabled to . . .

- "Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart" (Deuteronomy 15:10).
- "Carefully observe [his decrees and laws] with all your heart and with all your soul" (Deuteronomy 26:16).
- "Share with God's people who are in need. Practice hospitality" (Romans 12:13).
- "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men" (Colossians 3:23).

God, through Ezekiel, promised, "I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws" (Ezekiel 36:26-27). This promise he has fulfilled in his Son, Jesus, who has followed his Father's decrees and kept his laws for us. As we strive to live fruitful lives of stewardship, at the same time, we rest in Christ who has been the perfect steward for us.

Tithing is an outgrowth of a sense of thankfulness. Since God's mercies are constant and unfailing, our response should be of the same nature in proportion to our ability. The "grace of gratitude" has high rating in the Christian standard of virtues. It is developed by saying "Thank you" to God. At the entrance to life abounding stands the cross of self-denial.

Christian Parenting

God's Own for Eternity

There are only two sure things in life: death and taxes. We talk about taxes, but many of us avoid talking, or even thinking, about death. Yet, death is inevitable. We need to talk about death with our children. The most natural time to do this is when a death occurs.

Encourage your child to talk about it and to remember the times he or she spent with the one who died. Invite him or her to draw a picture or create a song that expresses his or her feelings. Older children might want to write a story or compose a prayer. Children have lots of questions about death. When you don't have an answer, admit it, but take time to explore the question with them. You might want to bring your unanswered question to your pastor. Assure your child that Jesus promises us eternal life when our earthly life has ended. Underline Bible verses such as John 3:16 that promise eternal life. In faith we can believe God's promise of eternal life. And trusting in God's promise of eternal life helps our faith to grow.

GATHER magazine Winter/Spring 2020 Bible Study: WE ARE CALLED! by Kathryn A. Kleinhans

Reformer Martin Luther used the word “vocation” or “calling” to refer to all aspects of human life. We are called to respond to God not just in our personal relationship with God but in our relationships with family and friends, in our work, and in our communities. This four-part Bible study will explore stories from both the Old and New Testament. As we reflect on how our biblical forebears heard and responded to God’s call, we will gain insight into how God is calling us—and how God may be calling others through us.

Tuesday, March 3 Bible study from the January issue of Gather

Session 1: Hearing God’s Call

Janet Luyben, Presenter

Focus is on men and women in the Old Testament. Some of them heard and recognized God’s call clearly. Others struggled to realize that it was God who was calling them or exactly what God was calling them to do.

Where: St. John’s Lutheran Church, 3104 Main Street, Sumneytown

Tuesday, April 7 Bible Study from the February issue of Gather

Session 2: The Call of Jesus

Kitty Pell, Presenter

This session focuses on Jesus’ calling of the disciples, on Jesus’ call to Saul (Paul) on the road to Damascus, and on Jesus’ call to all Christians to take up the cross and follow.

Where: St. James Lutheran Church, High & Price Streets, Pottstown

Tuesday, May 5 Bible study from the March issue of Gather

Session 3: Called to Serve

Bobbie Hoffman, Presenter

Jesus is clear that one of the central ways we respond to God’s call is by serving others. When we serve others, we are recognizing Christ present in their need. When we serve others, they see Christ visible in our loving service.

Where: St. James Lutheran Church, Kugler Rd. & Swamp Pike, Limerick

Tuesday, June 2 Bible study from the April issue of Gather

Session 4: Calling Networks

Pat Leberman, Presenter

The title of this Bible study, “We Are Called!” reminds us that calling is not something private or individualistic but are always interwoven with our relationships and our communities. This session focuses on how we support others in hearing and responding to God’s call.

Where: Augustus Lutheran Church, 717 W. Main Street, Trappe
