9th Sunday after Pentecost

u Connect

The flowers today are given to the glory of God by John and Judy Miller in celebration of the baptism of their granddaughter, Maya Ruth Miller.

Meagan, Maya's mother, will also be joining the church today, and her brother, Miles, celebrated his 4th birthday yesterday. Blessings to the entire Miller family.

Our sincerest prayers and condolences to the family of:

Dr. Cecil Neville in the death of his wife, Cater Neville. Cater passed away the morning of July 13.

Peggy Southerland (John) in the death of Peggy's uncle James Morgan.

We welcome Meagan Miller into our church family as a full member of Southern Pines UMC. Meagan and her husband Justin's mailing address is 233 National Drive, Pinehurst, NC 28387. She is transferring from Fellowship UMC in Hamlet, NC.

Today we celebrate with the Miller family (Justin, Meagan and Miles) in the Holy Baptism of their newest addition, Maya Ruth Miller.

SoPines UMC is beginning its first-ever GriefShare group led by new members Bill & Doris Russell, who have experience leading this group. GriefShare is a 13-week program of "help and encouragement" for those who have experienced a death of a loved one. The first meeting was 22-July from 6-8 PM in the Ezra Room — ending on 14-Oct. The sessions are non-denominational and have a 3 component design: video, small group discussion, and workbook. Each session revolves around a grief-related issue. While it is ideal to attend all 13 sessions, the meetings are "open meetings," meaning a person can begin attending at any time. Members will find comfort, answers, and hope in each session. Pamphlets and reminder cards are in the Narthex; there is more information on the website under 'Ministries,' or contact Bill and Doris (910-690-5234/russell_doris@hotmail.com).
