CREATE A SCENE AT OAK GROVE UMC DRAMA CAMP

Ages 4 to 12

Drama camp activities and games teach a variety of acting skills that children of all ages can master and use as they progress in their work as performers. Themes vary weekly, but include: Shakespeare, Improvisation, Intro to Acting Technique, and Commedia Clowning. Several stars of recent Lakeside productions attended the Oak Grove Drama Camp.

By Beth Henley

Directed By Mrs. Greta Hayes & Mr. Chris Thomas Hayes

Assistant Director Ms. Lisa Bridges

Stage Manager Adrianna Brown Construction Manager Mitchell Patterson

Synopsis

This story belongs in the group of Southern Gothic comedies for which Henley is best known. Its heroine, Carnelle, is an irrepressible young woman who thinks that winning the local beauty contest will restore her tarnished reputation and make her somebody in her small Mississippi community.

Thank You

A special thank you to Principal Jason Clyne; Ms. Heather Hoyne, Lakeside Language Arts Department; Ms. Lisa Bridges; Allegra Design -Print - Marketing; all of our wonderful parent volunteers.

You guys are behind the scenes, but hope you know that some of that applause is for you!

Directors' Note

This year we welcomed our first child into the world, Graham Thomas Hayes, and suddenly the word family had a new meaning. We had new priorities, goals, and responsibilities ... not to mention sleep schedules. We watched our family form in front of us ... and it has been amazing. So, this season we chose to focus on family, and the role of family in our lives.

One of the biggest questions that arises is, what do families owe us? In our fall show, The Miss Firecracker Contest, you'll watch Carnelle ask for love and acceptance, things we believe should come standard with any family. They don't for her. With the loss of her parents, the death of her aunt and uncle, and the absence of her cousins, Carnelle is left to seek love from the world around her, which is where our story picks up.

We want to thank the LDA and the parents of Lakeside, who have helped our transition into parenthood, you guys are incredible. We want to thank Ms. Lisa Bridges for agreeing to help us and for her vision with this show, which so brilliantly accompanies ours. Lastly, we want to thank the actors of this growing theatre company, thank you for showing honest and truthful theatre on that stage.
