

Leadership Seminar 350

By: Dr. Ralph Klicker

WHEN THE SHOOTING STOPS, THE WIND SUBSIDES, OR THE WATERS RECEDE, WHAT HAPPENS AFTER?

Description

During the last few years, the country has seen its share of death causing disasters and massacres. As horrible as the death rate has been, the number of devastated survivors is enormous. This Seminar educates the funeral director about the physical, emotional and spiritual roller coaster these grieving survivors experiences and how best to help them.

Objectives

At the completion of this Seminar, the funeral director will be able to:

- Articulate the immediate and long term responses of survivors
- Understand the different responses and needs of survivors of a natural disaster, mass homicide and other events that result in death
- Understand what a grieving family of a suicide experiences
- Describe how the funeral and funeral director can help survivors

Outline

- Natural disasters
- Mass homicides
- Suicide
- Emotional First Aid
- PTSD
- How funerals and funeral directors can help

Time 1 to 2 hours

Note

Dr. Klicker has written two books on this subject, is a member of a NYS crisis debriefing team and Region II DEMORT and was deployed to Katrina and the twin towers.
