Lesson In History Part 15

In this lesson in history we will present the real purpose of public law 102-14 and the Noahide Laws of the Lubivicher movement that we briefly discussed in the July-August, 1991 issue of the Intelligence Newsletter. We will also come to a better understanding of the term Judeo-Christian.

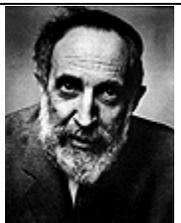

In past lessons in history, we have discussed the history of actual incidents and individuals who were very instrumental in changing the theology and doctrines of the Christian Church. In this lesson the names of some of these individuals will again be discussed briefly to enable us to tie together the earlier history lessons with present day conditions.

When we read of or think about the term Judeo-Christianity do we really know what the term implies? We are taught in most of the churches today that Christianity sprang from Judaism and therefore the term Judeo-Christianity simply represents that fact.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. Any theologian that is worth his salt knows the difference between the two terms. Therefore, we must look far beyond a simple misunderstanding, or a lack of training, to realize the importance of the term Judeo-Christianity. Remember, the term itself has been used for only about 50 years.

The Rabbis of Judaism understand this just as do the leaders in the Christian movement. Rabbi Moshe Maggal of the National Jewish Information Service said in 1961 when the term Judeo-Christian was relatively new, "There is no such thing as a Judeo-Christian religion. We consider the two religions so different that one excludes the other."<sup>1</sup>

Jesus gives us the key to the understanding of the difference between the two religions. Jesus berated the Pharisees over and over and if we will carefully review His words, he was unequivocal in showing the difference between Phariseeism and "The Way" which became known as Christianity. His main thrust was that the Pharisees made the Word of God of none effect by the traditions of men. Of course, we know that the traditions of men were, and are, the oral law of Talmudism as opposed to the written laws, statutes and judgments of God.

Rabbi Louis
Finkelstein

Rabbi Louis Finkelstein confirms what Rabbi Moshe Maggal said (and also the main thrust of the teachings of Jesus) when he wrote this in the book The Pharisees and The Sociological Background of Their Faith: "Phariseeism became Talmudism, Talmudism became Medieval Rabbinism, and Medieval Rabbinism became Modern Rabbinism. But throughout these changes of name, inevitable adaptation of custom, and adjustment of Law, the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered."<sup>2</sup> What is being said here is that Judaism is Phariseeism and has nothing whatsoever to do with Christianity.

Christianity sprang from Israel and came to Israel. Jesus came to Israel. Phariseeism was and is Judaism. Jesus had nothing whatsoever to do with it. It is time for Christians everywhere to understand this very basic truth. Water and oil do not mix.

So we must look much deeper into these terms and phrases being used to find the real meanings. We must find the real reasons for public law 102-14 and the Noahide laws. We must then relate what we have learned to the history of the Christian Church during the past several hundred years. From this, we will learn of the ultimate goal of the World Revolutionary Movement (WRM). We have stated that their goal is the destruction of Christianity. With what do they have in mind to replace Christianity?

Most of us have read the writings, or at least quotes, of the well known Communists throughout the years. It has always been very difficult to fully comprehend these quotes because we did not understand the nature of the great conspiracy within the Christian Church. We knew that as long as there was a strong Christian Church, these well-known quotes were meaningless.

A good example of this lack of comprehension is found in a quote from a letter written to Karl Marx by Baruch Levy in 1928. This was some years ago but as we shall see, it is very, very pertinent for today.

"The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, the annihilation of monarchy, and by the establishment of a world republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this new world order the Children of Israel (sic) will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition. The Governments of the different peoples forming the world republic will fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole world in their hands." 3

Of course, as we read that quote again it becomes obvious that most of his predictions have already come to pass. This means that the Talmudists are now ready for the final phase in their preparations for their version of a millennium in which they will be master of the world.

Because so many of us have come out of the modern Judeo- Christian churches we will have been taught a redefinition of the Kingdom of God here on earth. The question is, was this redefinition the result of the natural growth of understanding or was it the result of a great conspiracy? This lesson in history will show that it was a conspiracy. That conspiracy is perhaps the greatest malady that has ever attacked the Christian faith. This lesson will naturally follow as a continuation of lesson 14 in the July-August 1991 issue.

Several years ago we explained in some detail the three concepts of the Kingdom of God. Those messages are just as valid today as when they were presented. They were titled "The Three Jerusalems." We will quickly define the three concepts before we continue with the conspiracy. For those who want the details, those tapes are still available.

The first system is called Pre-Millennialism. It simply means that Christ will return and with him the Kingdom of God. The second system is called Post-Millennialism and means that the Kingdom gradually comes about and then Christ comes to take command. The third system is called A-Millennialism and means that we are all in the Christian Kingdom of God, here and now, and Christ is ruling. We, the body of Christ on earth, are to obey his commands and to rule with Him.

All of the Apostles, including John who was the author of the book of Revelation, believed in the Pre-Millennialist system. These men didn't believe this because they read the New Testament. They wrote the New Testament! They had the gifts of God. They knew what was to happen because Jesus told them. And He told us too, if we would just read and understand the New Testament without all of the doctrines and dogma that have influenced us while we were still in the Judeo-Christian churches.

In the book of Luke, Jesus told them, "Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled." It happened just that way at the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. Jesus repeatedly told the Apostles that the Kingdom of God was nigh at hand, it was to come to pass very shortly.

History books also describe what actually happened during this very turbulent and tumultuous time. Eusebius, in his book The History of the Church, From Christ to Constantine, wrote much about the activities of the early Christians during and after the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. Eusebius lived at the time of Constantine and his history is based on the actual reportings of men who were there!<sup>4</sup> Another book that tells much of the story is The Life and Works of Flavius Josephus.<sup>5</sup> Both of these books are worthy additions to your library.

It was obvious that the Christians alive at the time knew that the prophecies of Jesus had come to pass just as He said they would. Consequently, they no longer could be Pre-Millennialists in their views. They had to believe that the Christian Kingdom was ushered in and they were a part of it. The A-Millennialist concept was born and it was destined to become the prominent belief and continued to be the belief of all of Christianity for over a thousand years. It was this belief and faith that gave our forefathers the strength and courage to create the great Christian Civilization of the West.

Jesus didn't say that the Christian Kingdom of God was going to be easy. He said many times that quite the contrary would happen. The stories of the parables of Matthew 13 are about what was to happen during the Christian Kingdom period. The story of the tares sown in among the wheat is so accurate because it is exactly what has happened since the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

We must not lump together the Christian Kingdom period with that of the perfected Kingdom described in Revelation 21 and 22. That promise is yet to come and it, too, will be here on earth just like the Christian Kingdom has been on earth since the advent of Christ.

Jesus said in Matthew 12:30, "He that is not with me is against me..." Anyone who is against Jesus, or those working for those who are against Him, are antichrists.

The Phariseeical antichrists have done everything they could to destroy the Christian Kingdom of God. The history books of the Christian faith are full of stories of how they penetrated the Church with little barbs and heresies for the sole purpose of destroying Christianity.

The antichrists have never been bashful about telling the whole world how they have penetrated the Church for the purpose of destroying it. For just one example (and there are thousands of examples), Rabbi Lewis Browne in his book Story of the Jews said this, "It is more than only a thorn. Since the synagogue was represented in all Christian lands, it had the effect everywhere like a network of small swords, which injured the self-satisfaction of the Church. This explains the fact, that the Church allowed the Jews no pause to rest. It was her most dangerous foe, since everywhere it wandered, it promoted heresies."<sup>6</sup>

When Martin Luther nailed his thesis of 95 complaints on the cathedral doors, he was simply requesting the Roman Church to remove these heresies and return the church to that Universal Church founded by Christ and the Apostles.

Of course, we know that it didn't happen. We got the Reformation instead. The antichrists penetrated it with renewed vigor. They knew that here, in the reformation, was the golden opportunity to secure their future and their millennium or utopia.

The antichrists knew that as long as the Christians understood that they were a part of the body of Christ and were already ruling with him in the Christian Kingdom of God, they would never realize their messiah and their kingdom. They read and understood the New Testament. They knew what it said about the timing of the Christian Kingdom of God.

Somehow, they had to influence the Christians into believing that they were not in the Kingdom of God but that the Christians would see the Kingdom in the future and all the Christian needed was faith and hope.

They worked tirelessly, generation after generation. We must understand that the Jewish people believe that anyone of their men can become their messiah. As little boys they are taught that if they work hard enough and accomplish enough toward their kingdom rule, any one of them can be declared the messiah. They are told that they all will know when the right man comes into view.

The Jewish concept of the millennium is very much like the Christian's A-Millennial concept. Work hard, using a given set of rules, and their people will realize that the entire world will accept them as the zenith of Influence and power.

Their leaders, who are called the Sanhedrin, the chief of which is called the Prince of the Jews, came up with a plan. This plan was and is so preposterous that the average Judeo-Christian of today would consider it lunacy to discuss it. But let us hear the plan out before we make that determination.

As we all know, Europe from the 12th to the 15th century was rebelling against the business practices and customs of the Jews. Country after country was rejecting them and forcing them to leave. In desperation the Jews wrote to the Sanhedrin which was then located in Constantinople. They told their Prince of their plight and he advised them to become crypto-Jews and penetrate the Christian way of life. They were to take up the robes which means to become lawyers, judges, teachers, legislators and yes, preachers, as well as other positions of influence. But this was only the method to accomplish their plan. It wasn't the plan itself.

They knew that it would take many years for them to succeed, even if they were to succeed at all. But they too read Peter's words in 2 Peter 2:3 when he said, "But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." Psalm 90:4 says, "For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past..."

To think this way can be considered "high class thinking" as compared to "low class thinking." We think "low class" when we think only of ourselves and when we want everything in our own lifetime.

Their plan was, and is, so simple that it alludes us. Their plan is all around us and we don't recognize it for what it is. But remember, all of this is in God's control. None of this would be happening if we, as Christians, weren't under the judgment of God for failing Him. Jesus told the Pharisees, that the Kingdom was being taken from them and given to a nation bringing forth the fruit thereof. God can just as easily take it from us because we have failed Him.

The antichrists realized that as long as the Christians knew that they were ruling with Christ in the Kingdom of God, they couldn't penetrate it. But if they could be taught that the Kingdom was to be in the future and that the Kingdom wasn't already in the present, they would be able to literally destroy the Christian Kingdom of God here on earth.

So all of these men in robes, the teachers, lawyers, judges, legislators, under the direction of the preachers, proceeded to teach what is known as Pre-Millennialism. Again, this means that the Kingdom is in the future and Jesus will be visibly seen and rule the Kingdom from Jerusalem. But the real coup is yet to come!

This seemingly preposterous plan started immediately after the orders were issued by the Sanhedrin in 1489 but we see the first real evidence of it during Oliver Cromwell's reign in England.

Some of the information that follows was presented in earlier lessons in history but we must refresh our minds with some of the information so that we can grasp the significance of the final thrust of the great conspiracy.

A man named John Maitland, known as the Earl of Dysart, and his wife Elizabeth, were very active in finding a permanent home for the Jews. Maitland's wife, Elizabeth, was also known to be the mistress of Oliver Cromwell. She influenced him to arrange for the return of the Jews to England. Cromwell did make a deal with the Jewish leaders for their return to England in exchange for money.

From this fledgling start of Maitland and his wife, the infamous little political clique called the CABAL was very influential in the English parliament. They continued the work of finding a home for the Jews. Down through the generations and generations this same little clique of families continued their efforts.

Nearly two hundred years later, Samuel Maitland, the librarian for the Archbishop of Canterbury in England, convinced a little known but charismatic Plymouth Brethren preacher named John Darby that there was a single antichrist to come in the future. He also taught him the rapture doctrine. Then together, they developed the Pre-Millennialist concept of the Kingdom of God coming in the future.

So now we have the basis of the plan that was given by the Prince of the Sanhedrin so many years ago. It took nearly 350 years for the conspiracy to advance to this point. Impossible you say? No, it is not only possible but is also highly probable. Remember, "For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past."

The families in that little original clique called the CABAL stuck together all of those years. Another family name was Cooper, also known as the Earl of Shaftsbury. This name continued into the late 19th century with their strong political influence in the English parliament, as well as the countries of Europe, for the development of Zionism with a homeland for the Jews.

Other families joined in with the great conspiracy. Some of these men were heavily into the occult and mysticism. Lawrence Oliphant was a very active agent for the secret power that had its headquarters in London, England. Oliphant went from country to country in the Middle East creating situations that caused friction between the Arabs and Jews. Oliphant spent considerable time in the United States for the same purpose.

Not only did the Maitland name come down from John Maitland, the Earl of Dysart, to Samuel Maitland, the librarian for the Archbishop of Canterbury. The name Maitland also shows up in the family of Lord Arthur James Balfour. It was Lord Balfour who wrote the infamous Balfour Declaration letter in 1917 at the behest of the Zionists Chaim Weizmann and Nahum Sokolow to the 2nd Baron Rothschild. It was the Balfour Declaration that allowed the return of the Jews to Jerusalem.

But it had to be within the Christian Church itself that the final phase of the conspiracy was centered. The technique has nearly always been the same. Find a man who has the certain gifts or abilities that are needed. Find a man who has no scruples and who has his price. Study him, his intellect, his habits, his actions and his morals. If he is the man who is needed for the job, then approach him and offer him success and international recognition.

The United States was at the zenith of its influence in the world. All of the peoples of the world looked to this country for guidance for nearly everything including the theology of Christianity. It was also known that the Christian Church in the United States had great influence on politics and statesmanship of the country. So it was here in this country that they had to find their man.

They found him in Kansas. He was married and had children. He was a very successful con artist. His specialty was in fraud and in the forgery of documents. He used his specialty to get himself admitted to the legal bar in Kansas and became a practicing lawyer but he didn't have any schooling in law!

He was so good at presenting himself in this charade that he became the Attorney General for the state of Kansas! Of course, he was being observed all through this. Somewhere in this time frame he was contacted and given the offer and he accepted.

He had to separate from his wife and family, apparently because she was a godly woman and wouldn't have gone along with what was to come. He moved to St. Louis without her.

This man was totally ignorant of the Scriptures and yet he was the man chosen to tie the knot in the change in theology of the Christian Church to finalize the conspiracy. It was his job to take the concept that John Darby and Samuel Maitland presented and make it an acceptable dogma to the Christian Church throughout the world.

This man made trip after trip to London, England. These were kept secret and he spent considerable time there. It was undoubtedly there in that one square mile "City of London" where he received his specific instructions.

Cyrus I. Scofield

That man's name was Cyrus I. Scofield. Yes, he was the man with the Scofield Bible and all of those footnotes which some Christians have come to believe in more than the Bible itself. The first thing he did was to give himself a Doctor of Divinity degree even though he never received any training. Remember, he was a lawyer without any training in that either!

He was then offered the job as Pastor of a Dallas church. This indicates to us that there were many people involved with this phase of the conspiracy. He continued his trips to England and to Switzerland and stayed for months at a time.

He then moved to New York at the direction of the Zionist Samuel Untermyer and moved into the Lotus Club where he remained. Scofield and the Zionist Untermeyer worked very closely using this tremendous influence that he had created in the Christian Church to sway the politics of the country. The two of them threatened to expose President Wilson for indiscretions if Wilson didn't nominate Louis Brandeis (another Zionist) to the Supreme Court.

Church after church has fallen into the trap of this conspiracy, the greatest of all heresies that was begun over 400 years ago. The average Christian today thinks of a Millennium yet to come and that they will see Jesus ruling it in person.z

Our people can't seem to connect the thought that they are Christian today instead of some other faith because there were millions upon millions of Saints, our ancestors, ruling with Christ hacking a Christian Kingdom out of the wilderness.

Now for the brilliant coup in this entire conspiracy. At the beginning of this lesson we mentioned the Public Law 102-14 titled Education Day, U.S.A. and the Jewish Lubavitch Movement headed by Rabbi Menachem Schneerson. When we study the Lubavitch Movement we can begin to understand the depths of the conspiracy. We can now understand why the understanding of the Millennium had to be changed. We can now more completely understand the true meaning of the multitude of quotes made by famous Rabbis and other Communists. We can now understand the true meaning of the term Judeo-Christianity.

The Lubavitch Movement is one of the guiding influences in the concept of the Jewish Millennium and their messiah. The Lubavitch Movement teaches that the Seven Noahide Laws are applicable to all non-Jews and that the Jews of the world are obliged to enforce those laws. The penalty for breaking those laws is death by decapitation. At the same time, the Jews themselves are under the Mosaic Laws and not the Noahide Laws they say. Thus, they can violate the Noahide Laws without punishment.

Now we can understand why it was so important for the doctrines of the Christian Church to be changed to declare that the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of God done away with in the advent of Christ. For the longest period of time during the Christian Kingdom, we believed and practiced the Mosaic Laws. It was imperative that they relegate us to the Noahide Laws while only the Jews will keep the Mosaic Laws.

The Lubavitch Movement under Rabbi Menachem Schneerson teaches from the Talmud that any Jewish man can be the messiah. Further, they teach that the Jewish Millennium is to be ushered in at any moment with the naming of their messiah.

If we combine the works of the Lubavitch Movement with the final drive for the one world movement that is now being pushed, we are seeing the final preparations for the Jewish utopia or millennium.

The "kingdom" being preached by the modern Judeo-Christian preachers is not the Christian Kingdom of God. It is nothing but the Jewish utopia that is the end product of this giant conspiracy. There will be a messiah but it will not be Jesus.

But will our Judeo-Christian churches accept this scam? Let us look at some facts. Through the recent years, more and more so-called Christian ministers don't believe in the Deity of Jesus. The Christian News, a Luthern publication edited by Herman Otten, 8 has done a tremendous job in disclosing the corruption of these Christian ministers. Therefore, if there were a "kingdom" to be ordered in the very near future, complete with a "messiah," they would have to admit that it couldn't be Jesus since they don't believe in His Deity. Any old "messiah" would do, wherever the money and power is.

Next, let us consider the "Social Theology." This is just another term for Communism. Our seminaries are a hot-bed for the social reforms. Walk into the Methodist Church Headquarters in Washington, D.C., for example. It is a five-story grey stone building, one of only two non-government properties on Capitol Hill. Walk down the halls and read the signs over the office doors: "Department of Population," "Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights," "Handgun Control," "Emerging Social Issues," "Legislative Affairs Office," "Department of Economic Life," etc.

In the office for "Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights" the spokesperson is, or at least was, at the time of the news release, a non-practicing Jew! Members at this headquarters are active in the Coalition for Handgun Control, American Civil Liberties Union, Coalition for New Foreign and Military Policy, Coalition to End Grand Jury Abuse, Coalition to End the Death Penalty, etc.9

Yes, in all probability, the biggest share of the Judeo-Christian Churches of today will except what is about to happen. They will be taught that this appointed Jewish messiah embodies all of the social teachings of Jesus so we must believe that this is God's desire.

Do not underestimate the power of Rabbi Manachem Mendel Schneerson. He is not just another religious quack. He is one of the most powerful men in the entire world. When he speaks, people jump. Our Congress and President jumped, didn't they, when it was time to pass Public Law 102-14? This should tell us that the government of the United States of America will accept this Jewish edict when it happens. After all, there is a so-called "separation of church and state" and, besides, we are already a Talmudic nation so they can readily say, "What difference does it make?"

Now we can understand what the term Judeo-Christianity means. It simply means the submission of Christianity to the social, economic and religious precepts of Judaism.

The Economic Factor in the Conspiracy. The proposed Jewish Millennium must have an economic system. The Christian Kingdom of God here on Earth had an economic system and it was called the free-enterprise system. The economic system of the Jewish utopia is called money capitalism. There is a vast difference between the two systems.

The economic system of the Christian Kingdom was based on the free enterprise system described in the Word of God. The free enterprise system allowed for private ownership of property and the inheritance of property without being taxed out of it. No one could confiscate that property by edict because it was a God given unalienable right. Each of us could do anything we were man enough to do just as long as we didn't hurt anyone. If we did, we personally were responsible. We did not force our people to be good by regulation.

Not too many years ago, as members of the Christian Kingdom concept of economics, we were a proud people. We held our heads high with the confidence and pride of knowing that we had the highest standard of living in the world. That standard of living included the best-educated children of the world, the lowest infant mortality in the world, the best fed people of the world and for the lowest cost, the greatest number of privately-owned homes, the best transportation system of the world, and the best communications. In the conduct of that economic and social system, our Christian people were more actively engaged in the relationship between Christian principles and government than anywhere else in the world.

But it is gone. We are no longer the guiding light to the world. It is true, the people of the fourth world still clamor to come to our country by any means. But it is not to find a good job and be a producer. It is to come for the free hand-out, to be paid for by ever increasing taxes from those who still own property and still produce. It is tax and give, tax and give, with a lot of corruption mixed in.

The entire world is staring another depression in the face, probably more serious than the great depression of 1929. If those who created the depression of 1929 have their way, there will be another war to follow this depression. The 1929 depression was intentionally created to bring about World War II.

Each created cycle of depression and then war is simply the mechanism to bring the entire world closer and closer to submitting to their utopia, commonly referred to as the New World Order.

Why are our people losing everything that our forefathers gave us? It is because of greed, the greed of that unholy trinity of Capitalism, Communism and Religion. But we are all guilty of another form of greed. We didn't stand in the gap and stop this evil while we still had the chance. We didn't want to endanger our own security and comfort. Now, judgment is coming on us.

Not too many years ago, we were allowed to build our own home if we wanted to. We could purchase a tract of land and start building our home as we gathered together the money and had the time. There was no requirement for a building permit costing upwards of thousands of dollars. We didn't need a contractor's license. We didn't need to have the plans approved by the local planning commission. The government couldn't tear our home down either, just because they didn't like the looks of it.

Even abiding by their rules, we still lose. This AP release tells the story. "A couple who were to be arrested so authorities could destroy their $370,000 home fouled a plan for taking them into custody, at least for a day."

"Onondage County sheriff's deputies said they would try again today to arrest 58-year-old attorney Roger Scott and his wife, Rhoda. Deputies were given a court order to arrest the Scotts Thursday and put them behind bars while the town demolishes their home on East Lake Road in Skaneateles, the Post-Standard of Syracuse reported."

"The house, which was completed in 1984, has been the subject of a long dispute between the couple and town officials, who say it grossly violates local zoning laws. The structure is too big for its lot, officials claim."

Back to the past. We could also start a little business, either in production or service, depending upon our capabilities. That little business could have been a one man operation where our own children worked with the father learning the trade while helping to produce the product. Or, that little business could have hired several, or many other men, as the business grew. There were no restrictions, no worker's unemployment, no product liability insurance, no health insurance, no Occupation-Safety and Health-Administration (OSHA), no city occupation license, no state occupation license, no contractor's license, no state revenue department, or Internal Revenue Service.

No one worried about being sued. We just didn't sue each other because we tried to live and work in accordance with the precepts of the Christian Bible. Therefore, we didn't need product liability insurance for our product or homeowners insurance to protect us from every conceivable type of claim against us.

Certainly there was Capitalism, But it didn't mean the same thing that it does today. Men could pool their property, money, equipment and expertise to form a company and some companies became very big. The example that comes to mind is Henry Ford's Motor Company.

Today's system of Capitalism is vastly different. It is money being made only with money. Huge conglomerates buy up the controlling stock of smaller companies and these huge conglomerates are bought up by even larger ones. It is just like a big fish eating a smaller one.

Our forefathers wouldn't have accepted these new methods of doing business if not for a massive change in our social ethics, morals, customs and mores. That change came about when we accepted the Talmudic form of government.

It didn't happen instantly. First, the larger cities accepted it because of the large percentage of Talmudists living there. When you have the votes, you can demand anything. Then, as the influence in state legislatures grew, as it did in New York state, entire states came under its influence. Finally, as the influence reached into the halls of Congress, the Talmudic system of government became national.

There are still a few pockets of small communities, particularly in some of the Western states, where the laws initiated by Talmudism are being ignored. It is also observed that these communities still have churches where the congregation worships with a more old fashioned form of Christianity.

As a quick review of an earlier lesson in history, we will redefine what a Talmudic form of government means. This is for those new people on the mail list. It is for all of us to realize the importance of understanding the Talmudic system in this great conspiracy.

From the book The Wisdom of the Talmud by Rabbi Ben Zion Bokser we read: "The Wisdom of the Talmud by Rabbi Bokser will introduce the English reader to one of the great cultural treasures of mankind. For approximately a thousand years the great masters of Jewish thought grappled with the problems of man and his destiny. The enduring fruit of their labors is recorded in vast literature of the Talmud."

From the section titled "Social Welfare and Personal Freedom." "The Talmudists declared individual property rights as subject to their consistency with the public welfare. When it is to serve the public interest, these rights may be modified or suspended altogether. Basing its action on this principle, Talmudic legislation regulated wages and hours of labor, commodity prices and rates of profit. They held it was similarly the task of the community to provide other facilities for promoting the public welfare, such as public baths, competent medical services, and adequate educational facilities for all."

"Indigent townsmen were given a weekly allowance for food and clothing...for the poor traveler and the homeless, public inns were frequently built on the high roads. All these facilities were maintained from the proceeds of a general tax to which all residents of a community contributed."

From the section titled "Moral Pressures on the Law." "The Talmud gives evidence of a continuously growing program of welfare legislation, in which ever wider sectors of social life were brought under the control of a law, whose motivating impulse was the welfare of the common man. Thus the law empowered the community to assume responsibility for education and poor relief. It authorized the supervision of weights and measures, and of fair wages and prices to prevent unethical business practices."

"The growth of Talmudic law, in all its aspects, was for the most part, the work of judicial interpretation rather than of formal legislation. The Rabbis who were called upon to administer the old law reckoned with the conditions under which it was to be applied. And if they thought the mechanical application of precedent in conflict with the demands of equality, they resorted to reinterpretations which withdrew the new case from the old category into which it seemed, by the rules of formal logic, to fall. The case so decided then became precedent for parallel situations. The judge served in effect as a CREATOR (emphasis mine-ed.) of law and not only as its interpreter."<sup>10</sup> End of quotes from The Wisdom of the Talmud.

We hear songs about and we talk of "the good old days." What you just read is the change agent between the good old days and modern America, in abbreviated form.

By the simple application of the principles outlined in those few paragraphs (and there is much, much more to the story!), our country has fallen from the highest standard of living among the Western Christian nations to near the bottom. To pay for all of these social actions we are deeper in debt than any other nation on earth.

The great American dream of owning our own home is gone. The best that our young people can do today is to buy a mobile home and park it on a lot. We have more people sleeping on grates and in the back seats of automobiles than ever before. We have more people eating out of garbage cans than ever before. It doesn't make any difference if a big share of them are drug addicts and drunks, the root cause is the "social actions" of Talmudism.

All of that "adequate educational facilities for all" gave us the best football and basketball teams in the world and functional illiterates as graduates. Gone are the small and locally operated schools that gave us some of the greatest men of science, engineering, mathematics, invention and production in the world. Gone are the secondary schools that demanded foreign languages, world reknown literature and accurate history and civics.

It was the Talmudic system that gave us all of the immorality that has befallen us. They speak of high and lofty morals but where are they? How did we wind up with sex education in schools, pornographic stores, filthy movies, free love, etc.? Why do we have fourth generation families on welfare? Where is this "motivating impulse for the welfare of the common man."

Yes, the great conspiracy has alluded us. It took a long time and they are now certain that the utopia dreamed of for so long is imminent. By removing one or two Christian principles at a time, each succeeding generation wouldn't know the difference. It is the trick of the frog being placed in cold water and then the water heated gradually. The frog stays until it is dead.

By changing the social ethics, the morals, customs and mores, the economic system of "anything for a buck" and "get him before he gets you," follows naturally. "Business is business, you know." Workmanship becomes shoddy and products made in our manufacturing plants are produced with "planned obsolescence." Something guaranteed for two years goes bad in 25 months.

We have become children of the world and we have songs, movies and written articles reminding us of this. We have become interdependent and internationalists in our economic system. God's system of production is based on replacement as required. This new system is based on growth. It has to be that way to pay the interest.

We are being taught, or rather forced, to accept any family or group, regardless of customs and religion as next door neighbors. The story of "Magic" Johnson is the story of modern day America. Everything considered, he is being rewarded and even eulogized for what he did. Where did he get his AIDS? He got it from white women who would line up at the dressing room doors after each game, just for a night with one of these football and basketball gods.

The Judeo-Christian churches have become international also. With the greatest conspiracy in the history of Christianity, that of removing us from the Kingdom and placing it in the future, most preachers of today don't or won't preach on the social ethics being perpetrated all around us. "God hates the sin but loves the sinner."

We have used over seven pages describing how we got into this terrible mess. We are obligated to God and to you to do that. Describing evil is not an easy thing to do but it must be done.

But we do have a bright and beautiful future. That also is a promise of God. The first thing that our people have to do is found in Acts 2:37-40. "Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

"For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort (witness and persuade), saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation."

Through the act of baptism you become a part of the body of Christ. You come in contact with the blood of Christ by total submersion in that act of baptism. Becoming a part of the body of Christ, you become a part of that great Christian Kingdom of God.

Once we realize that beautiful gift of God, the rest becomes work. The guide is found in 2 Cor.6:16-18. "And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

Here, in the world about us, what do we do? Some of the greatest philosophers of recent times, and those the Talmudic system hates with a passion, give us the clues. Oswald Spengler, Francis Yockey and Hegel all tell us of nationalism. That means ethnic, racial and tribal. Each of them taught of the one great folly of the white, Celto-Saxon, Teutonic Christian West. As a people we have gone to the four corners of the world and brought other cultures to live with us and we have tried to make them over in our own image. We have tried to play God.

The modern Judeo-Christians and the Talmudists can rant and rave about this all they want but the fact remains, if we are to survive we must turn inward to ourselves. Go back to our own culture, our own morals and our own customs. Teach our people to regain their self respect. May God help and guide us.
