

Have you thought about what you'd like to ask when you get to heaven? If we compiled all our questions, and put them in a book, it would probably make a large, engaging volume. This testifies to how much God has not revealed, for His own good reasons. The Father could've enlightened us about so many things we'd like to know. But He has chosen not to do so.

Paul was forbidden to tell what he saw in Paradise. No eye has seen nor ear heard what God has prepared. We're not to delve too curiously into hidden matters. "The secret things belong to the Lord, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children" (Deut. 29:29). Now we only see in a mirror darkly; and that's as God wishes. What we have is what He has wisely provided. That's quite enough for us, isn't it? All for Jesus, Richard

Dear Newnan Church Family,
Wow! I am overwhelmed by the love, appreciation, and positive feedback I have received from you all this summer. I can't tell you how much it means to me, especially that so many people beyond just the families in the children's ministry encouraged me and supported me along the way.

This summer has really confirmed God's calling for me to work with children in one way or another, whether it's in elementary schools, ministry, or even both. The children of Newnan Church of Christ are precious gifts, and I could not have asked for better children and families to work with. Thank you all for being so receptive and supportive of me coming in and working with your children. I would not have wanted to spend my summer any other way. I can't tell you how much it meant to me to be welcomed with your hugs and smiles on Sundays, Wednesdays, and at other gatherings.

I tried hard not to get emotional on my last day, but when I started hugging people goodbye, it was impossible not to tear up. In regards to the picnic basket gift and thank you card, I can't say thank you enough. I'm overwhelmed that you gave what you did, and am so undeserving of it. I will be using a lot of the money to support my small group that meets in my apartment in Athens.

I know Lanita said I was "feeding" the children of Newnan this summer, but you were all feeding me as well. I've grown and learned so much and have made so many new relationships in Christ. God is so good, and I'm very grateful our common bond in Jesus Christ brought us all together. If you will have me again, I hope to be back next summer! I will miss each and every one of you as I venture back to Athens. I seriously can't say thank you enough for everything! :) God bless, Ashlyn Zeiler
