MONTHLY NEWSLETTER | CHAPEL HILL UMC | NOVEMBER 2018

DAY LIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS.

Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour Saturday, November 3rd!

ALL SAINT'S DAY CELEBRATION

We will be honoring All Saint's Day Sunday, November 4th each service. This will be a time that we honor those individuals in our congregation that we have lost this year. During the 0 service their names will be read and a candle will be lit in their honor. Pastor Mike will have a time during the service for anyone in the congregation that has lost a love one to name that person. A candle will be lit for those individuals as a group. If you would like to display a picture of your loved one, please contact Marla Owens.

CHAPEL HILL'S THANKSGIVING DINNER

The Fellowship Team will be hosting a Thanksgiving Feast for the church Sunday, November 11th after the 11:00 service. The Fellowship Team will be furnishing the turkey, dressing, gravy and rolls. We would like you to bring your favorite Thanksgiving dish. Those with the last name starting with A through I please bring a vegetable dish, those with the last name starting with J through R a salad, and those with the last name starting with S through Z a dessert. We would like to especially invite our new members and those that have been Regular Attendees to welcome them to Chapel Hill UMC. Let us join as a church family and enjoy this meal together and this time together. Sign-up sheets will be available in the narthex. Please direct any questions to Marla (270-826-6541).

ARE YOU SCHEDULED TO BE IN THE HOSPITAL?

Please call the church office to let us know of any hospitalizations or surgeries you or your family may experience. We want to be aware of any pastoral needs or prayer concerns that you may have.

We want to visit and pray with you!

LETTER FROM PASTOR AMY

Dear Church Family,

God has blessed me in so many ways, but I don't always see those blessings. At those times, I try to stop and change my perspective. Currently, our downstairs living room is covered in Ellie's toys as well as the various things that she has found throughout the house that she finds interesting, like an empty bottle, movie, and oh so many lids. When I am in the wrong frame of mind, I look at the living room and see a mess. And more than that, it is a mess that I need to clean up only to have it return in 1.7 seconds. But when I stop and think about it, without those ugly feelings getting in the way, I see my daughter's curiosity. I see her learning how the world works. I see how she can find something beautiful in something ordinary. And I am thankful for the mess, because it shows that Ellie is learning more and more. Oddly enough, the mess shows the joy of my child in her own blessings.

Even when I feel like I am being swallowed up by my problems, I can, if I choose, look around and see so many blessings. I am blessed by my family, by my husband who sends me texts saying "I love you" at just the right time. I am blessed with the people here at this church, who bless me with such meaningful conversations, laughter, and love. I am blessed to be in ministry with a God who is so big, especially when I am so small. Laughter, love, and mercy are so much stronger than I give them credit for if I just take the time to find them.

With Many Blessings,
Pastor Amy

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL

Christmas Musical rehearsals are going GREAT!!!

This year in the "Star Search" Christmas musical, the kids are learning the valuable lesson of humility during the story of the birth of the Savior. Based on the scriptures Philippians 2:3-7: "Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too. You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had. Though he was God, He did not think of equality with God as something to cling to. Instead, He gave up His divine privileges; He took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being."

We hope you can join us on Sunday, December 16th at 5pm.

THANKSGIVING BREAK

Just a reminder that on Wednesday, November 21st, there will be no Children or Youth Programs. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving & we will resume our Wednesday programs on November 28th.
