7th Sunday after Pentecost. Tone 6
Holy Myrrh-bearer and Equal-to-the-Apostles
Mary Magdalen (1st c.)
Translation of the relics (404) of Hieromartyr Phocas (403).
St. Cornelius, monk, of Pereyaslav (1693)
Epistle: Romans 15:1-7; Gospel: Matthew. 9:27-35
To Equal-to-the-Apostles:
Epistle: 2 Corinthians. 9:2-12; Gospel: Luke. 8:1-3

Epistle: Romans 15:1-7
Please Others, Not Yourselfes

15 We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Each of us must please our neighbor for the good purpose of building up the neighbor.

3 For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."

4 For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope.

5 May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus,

6 so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel for Jews and Gentiles Alike

7 Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

Keep us in Thy Holiness that all day long we may be instructed in Thy Righteousness! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

To Equal-to-the-Apostles:
Mary Magdalene

Epistle: 2 Corinthians. 9:2-12;

Gospel: Luke. 8:1-3

Tropar, Tone 1

By keeping His commandments
and laws, holy Mary Magdalene, you followed Christ, Who for our sake was born of the Virgin,
and in celebrating your most holy memory today, we receive forgiveness of sins by your prayers.

Kondak, Tone 3

Standing before the Cross of the Savior, Suffering with the Mother of the Lord, The most glorious Mary Magdalene offered praise with tears. She cried out: What is this strange wonder? He who holds the whole creation in His hand
chooses to suffer: Glory, O
Lord to Your power!

Gospel: Matthew. 9:27-35

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

²⁷ As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying loudly, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

²⁸ When he entered the house, the blind men came to him; and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him,

“Yes, Lord.” ²⁹ Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith let it be done to you.” ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly ordered them, “See that no one knows of this.” ³¹ But they went away and spread the news about him throughout that district.

Jesus Heals One Who Was Mute

³² After they had gone away, a demoniac who was mute was brought to him. ³³ And when the demon had been cast out, the one who had been mute spoke; and the crowds were amazed and said, “Never has anything like this been seen in Israel.” ³⁴ But the Pharisees said, “By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons.”^[a]

The Harvest Is Great, the Laborers Few

³⁵ Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.

MAY THE God OF hope
FILL YOU WITH all joy AND peace
AS YOU trust IN Him, SO THAT
YOU MAY overflow WITH hope
BY THE power OF THE Holy Spirit.
ROMANS 15:13

Wisdom for the Week

Things to think about on a quiet summer morning!

“Very often it happens that prayer is on the lips, but in the heart cunning, incredulity or unbelief, so that by the lips the man seems near to God, whilst in his heart he is far from Him.” — St. John of Kronstadt, My Life in Christ

“Men are often called intelligent wrongly. Intelligent men are not those who are erudite in the sayings and books of the wise men of old, but those who have an intelligent soul and can discriminate between good and evil. They avoid what is sinful and harms the soul; and with deep gratitude to God they resolutely adhere by dint of practice to what is good and benefits the soul. These men alone should truly be called intelligent.” + St. Anthony the Great, “On the Character of Men and on the Virtuous Life: One Hundred and Seventy Texts,” Text 1, The Philokalia: The Complete Text \(Vol. 1\)

“But those who manage to genuinely place their hopes totally in God will never be disappointed. God will be with them continuously. They will then be able to bear witness to the miraculous way Providence works in their lives, yet without recognizing it. All of us have such experiences if we pay attention.” — Kyriacos C. Markides, Gifts of the Desert: The Forgotten Path of Christian Spirituality

“...Love Christ and put nothing before His Love. He is joy, He is life, He is light. Christ is Everything. He is the ultimate desire, He is everything. Everything beautiful is in Christ.”
— Elder Porphyrios

STEWARDSHIP ACTIVITIES AND OPPORTUNITIES

STEWARDSHIP SHOUT-OUTS!

Thanks to the quick action of Alice Dobransky and the responsiveness of Chuck Woloschak, we were able to obtain additional church pews for the Cemetery Chapel. Alice saw a post on Facebook offering free church pews. Alice quickly contacted Chuck Woloschak who arranged to pick-up the pews and deliver them. Her determination and his cooperation resulted in a welcome addition of comfortable seating. Many years!

Tuesday's COMMUNITY DINNER was another highly successful Sts. Peter & Paul outreach to the community. Thanks to everyone for your donations, preparing and serving the delicious food, the warmth of your welcome and fellowship. We look forward to continuing what has become a parish tradition—enthusiastically supported by all—for years to come. May God grant many happy, healthy and blessed years!

ROAD WORK – A special shout-out to the City of Youngstown's 4th Ward Councilman, Mike Ray, for expediting the repairs to our Cemetery's entrance roads. It's really makes a difference. Many thanks Councilman Ray.
