CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Oregon shall be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in one Supreme Court and in such other courts as may from time to time be created by law. The Judges of the Supreme and other courts shall be elected by the legal voters of the State or of their respective districts for a term of six years, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law, which compensation shall not be diminished during the term for which they are elected.

Section 2. The courts, jurisdiction, and judicial system of Oregon, except so far as expressly changed by this amendment, shall remain as at present constituted until otherwise provided by law. But the Supreme Court may, in its own discretion, take original jurisdiction in mandamus, quo warranto and habeas corpus proceedings.

Section 3. In actions at law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of this State, unless the court can affirmatively say there is no evidence to support the verdict. Until otherwise provided by law, upon appeal of any case to the Supreme Court, either party may have attached to the bill of exceptions the whole testimony, the instructions of the court to the jury, and any other matter material to the decision of the appeal. If the Supreme Court shall be of opinion, after consideration of all the matters thus submitted, that the judgment of the court appealed from was such as should have been rendered in the case, such judgment shall be affirmed, notwithstanding any error committed during the trial; or if, in any respect, the judgment appealed from should be changed, and the Supreme Court shall be of opinion that it can determine what judgment should have been entered in the court below, it shall direct such judgment to be entered in the same manner and with like effect as decrees are now entered in equity cases on appeal to the Supreme Court. Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the Supreme Court to find the defendant in a criminal case guilty of an offense for which a greater penalty is provided than that of which the accused was convicted in the lower court.

Section 4. The terms of the Supreme Court shall be appointed by law; but there shall be one term at the seat of government annually. At the close of each term the judges shall file with the Secretary of State concise written statements of the decisions made at that term.

Section 5. In civil cases three-fourths of the jury may render a verdict. The Legislative Assembly shall so provide that the most competent of the permanent citizens of the county shall be chosen for jurors; and out of the whole number in attendance at the court, seven shall be chosen by lot as grand jurors, five of whom must concur to find an indictment. But provision may be made by law for drawing and summoning the grand jurors from the regular jury list at any time, separate from the panel of petit jurors, and for the sitting of the grand jury during vacation as well as session of the court, as the judge may direct. No person shall be charged in any circuit court with the commission of any crime or misdemeanor defined or made punishable by any of the laws of this State, except upon indictment found by a grand jury; provided, however, that any district attorney may file an amended indictment whenever an indictment has, by a ruling of the court, been held to be defective in form.

Section 6. Public officers shall not be impeached; but incompetency, corruption, malfeasance or delinquency in office may be tried in the same manner as criminal offenses, and judgment may be given of dismissal from office, and such further punishment as may have been prescribed by law.

Section 7. Every Judge of the Supreme Court, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe, and transmit to the Secretary of State, the following oath:

"I, _____ _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of a Judge of the Supreme Court of this State, according to the best of my ability, and that I will not accept any other office, except judicial offices, during the term for which I have been elected."

(Affirmative argument following No. 356 covers this measure.)

One Milton Everett, Mitchek, did employ one Notary Public, Sharilee Murphy, to witness my request regarding the required oath of office for judges from the Secretary of State Elections Division a certified copy of the lawfully, constitutionally required oath of office that all Circuit Court Judges and all Supreme Court Judges for the State of Oregon must take. Two clerks, Summer Davis and Margie, did state that the Required Oath of Office for all Circuit Court and all Supreme Court Judges in the State of Oregon was in Article VII (Amended), Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Oregon.

Fraud

The Secretary of State clerk, Summer Davis, did give me an Oregon 1999-2000 Election Book, and flagged page 229. (See exhibit "A", enclosed and attached hereto.)

One Milton Everett, Mitchek did ask the same above question again and both clerks, Summer Davis and Margie, did state that according to the Attorney General's office, this is the required oath that Circuit Court Judges and Supreme Court Judges must take.

Signed under the penalty of perjury to be true, correct, certain and complete.
