Greetings Quilters,

I'm keeping Katie from sending the Newsletter, so this is a short note and I will do better next month.

The class that Janet taught on the Twister Table runner was a lot of fun, and we had a great turn out. I came home and worked on mine almost got it finished.

Hope that everyone is looking forward to the Field Trip to Trenton Florida on March 16th. If anyone has suggestions for other outings please let me know. You can present your suggestions at the Board Meeting the 2nd Wednesday of the month. That is at 9:30 am during the Sit and Sew.

If you haven't renewed your Guild Membership, please do.

Cora found enough completed Quilts in storage to compete the requirements for the Highway Patrol, and Sherrianna found Quilts that could be used for the donations to the Women's Center and to Hospice. Joan Majors delivered the table runners and Quilt to Ageing Matters in Cocoa for their fund raiser. Thank You Cora, Joan and Sherrianna.

I dropped off the items at Vitas, they were very happy to get them. Liz in the Titusville office said it was like Christmas in March.

Thank You everyone for your support of this Guild.
Laura
