Children of both the present and the future of any community. Our efforts at the ICJC Sunday School include shaping the present and the future of our community by providing a positive and caring Islamic learning environment.

ICJC Sunday school, since its inception more than 40 years ago, it has provided Islamic education to diversified group of students. The school is committed to providing students with excellent quality Islamic education according to the Quran and the Sunnah, based on high moral and ethical values in an Islamic environment.

Our instructional day is equally divided into two parts – one period for Quran instruction and one for Islamic Studies. The Quran portion of the program begins with mastery of the Qaaidah Nooriniyah to ensure that students become fluent in Arabic letter recognition and makhaarij, proper pronunciation. From there students learn the rules of tajweed in order to read the Quran correctly and in the beautiful manner in which it is prescribed. Students are also offered a lunch period which enables them to socialize and develop friendships with other Muslim children.

The Sunday school has a highly dedicated and motivated staff who care about their students and pleasing Allah (SWT). We have a strong commitment to creative learning opportunities, ongoing professional development and team work designed to maximize teacher and student progress.

Alhamdulillah, our rosters are filled with students who are eager to learn about their deen.
