

WALTRIA STEFANSKI

1893 - 1986

Waltria Stefanski, age 93, of Elkton, died Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 17, at her home following a short illness.

She was born Aug. 11, 1893 in Mochow, Poland and moved to Oliver Township at the age of 10 with her parents, the late Felix and Frances (Boudnik) Marx. She was united in marriage on Aug. 8, 1914 in Detroit to John Stefanski. He preceded her in death on August 8, 1949.

Mrs. Stefanski was a member of St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, Pigeon.

Surviving are one son, John Stefanski and one daughter, Mrs. Sophia Burzyck, both of Elkton; five grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Marie Hawkey of Ferndale.

Two brothers, Stanley and Joseph Marx and three sisters, Sophia Vallad, Julie Marx and Mary Marx, preceded her in death.

A Funeral Mass was conducted Saturday, Sept. 20 at 12:00 noon from St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, Pigeon. Rev. Fr. Ben Skornia, pastor, officiated with burial in the church cemetery.

A scripture prayer service was held Friday, Sept. 19 at the Elkton Chapel of the Champagne Funeral Chapels.