2017 Pittsburgh Countryside Adventures!

“Pittsburgh Countryside Adventure in the Laurel Highlands”

Quecreek Mine Rescue Site/ Fallingwaters & Old General Store.....$95.

Our motor coach departs in the morning to visit the Quecreek Mine Rescue Site. In July of 2002, nine miners became trapped deep beneath the earth with little hope of survival. The national news covered this story of the miraculous rescue of all nine miners. It was an important milestone in our country’s emerging from the post 9-11 trauma and encouraged healing, from the nearby flight 93 memorial site. Our visit will lift your spirits with stories of faith, skill, cooperation and a community that overcame the odds. Lunch is included at the Oakhurst Tea Room, known for its home style cooking, in the heart of beautiful Laurel Highlands. Our afternoon includes a tour of Falling Waters, one of Frank Lloyd Wright’s architectural masterpieces, with a waterfall flowing through the home. It was designed for the Kaufman family department store owner in Pittsburgh and has been featured in National Geographic Magazine. En route back to Pitts we will include a stop at the Old General Store & Country Pie Shoppe. Nostalgic Candy, memories of old-times and a personal pie to go makes this a wonderful stop.

Tour includes: Motor coach transportation, admissions, lunch, and dessert.
