2020 MARKETING PROGRAM

FIJI

Fiji, the heart of the South Pacific, is blessed with 333 tropical islands that are home to happiness, beauty and adventure. Fiji is one of the friendliest places on earth. Its residents welcome travelers with a heartfelt "Bula!" (health).

Famous for its soft coral diving, white sand beaches and pristine natural environment, Fiji is surely every beach bum's vision of nirvana with palm-fringed beaches, fish-packed reefs and smiling locals. Fiji's underwater scenery is spectacular and some of the finest and most accessible dives in the Pacific can be found here. Its reputation as the "soft coral capital of the world" is well justified and its countless reefs, drop-offs, walls and channels will have even experienced divers and snorkelers "oohhing" and "ahhing" into their mouthpieces. Fiji is also a great surfing destination and there are countless other water sports to experience including sailing and jet skiing.

But the oceans and beaches, as lovely as they are - are only part of what Fiji has to offer. There are ample opportunities to climb a mountain, visit an orchid garden, raft down a river, soak in a hot spring or visit a village or an uninhabited island. Playing golf in the South Pacific island of Fiji can be one of your most enjoyable golfing experiences, with the great courses, the ideal climate, lush tropical fairways and perfect greens. You can relax around the pool, or picnic on a perfect white sand beach. Crank up the adrenaline with an action sport adventure out on the water or up in the hills. Get close to nature with jungle treks or visit one fo Fiji's famous Nature Reserves. For sophisticated travelers, choose a Spa & Wellness treatment, or dine in a fine restaurant.

You'll want to get to know the native people. They are friendly and welcoming. Although many of the native people of Fiji live in Nadi, Suva or other urban areas, there are still many villages where people live a simple life reminiscent of the way life has been lived for centuries. You can come to know the Fijian history and heritage through their entertainment. Be sure to attend a fire-walking ceremony and also watch the meke, an interesting dance widely performed for tourists where Fijian legends are acted out by costumed dancers.

Fiji is not only made up of its native population but of other nationalities that were brought to Fiji to work including Indian and Chinese. Although the Fijian culture and influence still predominates, the influence of other cultures is noticeable.

Viti Levi, the largest island, is where most visitors spend their time. It is divided into three basic areas: around the city of Suva (on the east, the wettest and moist humid side); near Nadi (west, the driest); and the Coral Coast (on the dry southwest side). Of its more than 333 islands there are many small less populated islands that provide everything for Robinson Crusoe type of adventures to deluxe five-star accommodations and services.

Fiji has a vast variety of accommodations, services, adventures, water and beach activities and much more. You'll love your experience in Fiji.
