

Barbara Rentschler

Barbara has a BBA degree in Accounting along with an extensive background in banking and finance as well as real estate. She previously held senior management positions with emphasis in Retail Banking, Commercial Lending and Bank Operations with two large national banks. After banking Barbara worked in real estate and owned a consulting business specializing in assisting investors and small businesses.