The Dressage Horse Manifesto / Film: Into The Spotlight

EQUUS Film Festival – Real Horse Rescuers Panel

Yvonne Barteau

"I love my life, my family and the horses I get to work with and am blessed to have the people in my life who believe in me." ~ Yvonne Barteau

Yvonne Barteau grew up in Toronto, Canada without nearly enough access to her passion, which from childhood, was for horses.

She is one of this nation's most celebrated riders and a lifelong horse trainer. She worked in equine theater starting as Principle Trainer eventually becoming a Feature Performer and The Director of Entertainment Operations for the Arabian Nights Dinner Theater in Florida, where she met and married her husband and business partner, Kim Barteau.

Since then, she has earned her United States Dressage Federation Gold, Silver and Bronze medals as well as her Gold, Silver and Bronze freestyle bars. Her Business KYB Dressage has trained over a dozen horses to the Grand Prix Level. Yvonne has qualified horses and riders for World Championships and World Cups and earned dozens of National and Regional titles. In 2015 her long time training project and friend GP Raymeister was named Most winning Horse in USDF History.

Yvonne Barteau has two published books. The Dressage Horse Manifesto is the second of two books she has authored on horses. The award winning, Ride the Right Horse, examines the impact of human and horse personalities and how they work together. She has also authored multiple screenplays, including The Spirit of the Horse, All the Kings Horsemen, and Dream Upon A Horse.

Yvonne and her husband Kim are KYB Dressage and they are based out of Maple Park Illinois.
