

Today's gospel on the theme of the Good Shepherd is a familiar one to us all as are the words "I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father." I've been told that sheep prefer to be led. You lead sheep and they will not go anywhere that someone else does not go first. They become attached to and trusting of their shepherds. The sheep know the distinctive sounds and calls the shepherd makes ; the shepherd learns to understand all the sheep's moves. The lesson from the gospel is that we are the sheep of God's flock ; there is a possibility that we have a Shepherd who cares for us, whom we can trust, who calls us each by name and is at work shaping and guiding our lives.

*I am
the Good Shepherd
John 10:11*

Are we the sheep of His flock? Probably some of us rule ourselves out of the flock because we assume that must mean we are somehow in constant touch with God. In order to remain in the flock do we have to understand and believe every word in the Creeds and live saintly lives? I think , from what I've garnered over the years, that all it takes is to be willing to be with the flock and to listen to the voice of this Shepherd. A "flock member" can be that someone who encourages another when he/she is tempted to give it all up, to forget it all, to just walk away in despair. That someone who discourages another when he/she moves too rashly in unclear directions. That someone who knows when to help and when to just be 'available' if help is needed. As flock members we can listen to the voice from the heart calling, encouraging, challenging, and guiding.

I remember one special nun from my Catholic elementary school years who called us " her little lambkins". I was very young but I knew she wanted to keep us safe while we were learning our ABCs , and she cared for us while in her care. She mirrored , by her example, the "teachings" of the Good Shepherd. Like a shepherd who cares for his sheep, God cares for each of us. Each of us is willed , each of us is loved , each of us is necessary.

The image of shepherds is that they are kind, loving, patient, strong and self-sacrificing. They are a good image of Jesus. And sheep, who can at times be rather stupid and foolish, can be a symbol for us at times. Jesus does not scold those who wander off or lose their way, but is always ready to bring us back and resolve differences and disagreements.

The flock that Jesus is the Good Shepherd of is bigger, more diverse, more abundant than we can imagine. It's as big as love. May we live within that flock and be guided and shaped by the Shepherd, with joy , with courage , and with hope.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.

The SACRAMENT OF FIRST EUCHARIST will be celebrated next Sunday at St. Augustine's and St. Lawrence O'Toole. Please keep these children in your prayers.

YOUR PARISH NEEDS YOU ! Each time we attend Mass, we may notice people taking part in various roles or functions. In doing so, they are participating in “liturgical ministry,” using their talents or “gifts” in service to the parish community. Very likely you have occasionally seen or heard a plea from your parish to consider offering your services in liturgical ministry. Many of our communities are seeing dwindling involvement in ministry, including lectors, communion ministers, greeters & ushers (hospitality), servers, musicians and singers. This may be due to age, illness, relocation, or other unknown factors. In response to this reality, a Liturgical Ministry Information Session will be offered to assist and inform those who would like to serve their community in this manner but are unsure of the talents/gifts/skill necessary to be an effective liturgical minister. The session will be held on Tuesday, May 1st, from 7:00 pm to 8:30pm, at Holy Family Church, Falkland Street. (This is also open to those already involved who may be questioning or considering a different ministry) The evening will be facilitated by Deb Gillespie, Liturgy Coordinator for the English parishes of the Archdiocese of Moncton, and Mark Mahoney, Pastoral Associate for Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity. To register, contact Deb at liturgymoncton@gmail.com, or Mark Mahoney at markmahoney@rogers.com or 386-6178.

Not Getting an Answer, But We'd Be More Informed About the Question—To continue the reflection and conversation around the complex issue of Medically Assisted Death, Dr. Andrew Wilson is presenting Returning to Dust: Reappraising Death and Dying in Catholicism. In his session, Andrew will explore the Church's beliefs and attitudes about death through her history, paying particular attention to the ethical questions around this. The session takes place on Thursday, May 10th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Dan Bohan Centre at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish. Andrew is an associate professor of Religious Education at Mount Allison University and a frequent presenter for the Office of Faith Development. Should you plan to attend, we ask that you please register with Ellen prior to May 10th.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the OPEN HOUSE event organised by Station-Acadie, on Thursday, April 26th from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. p.m. at Place de la Cathédrale, 224 St-Georges Street. It will be an opportunity to visit the newly renovated space located on the ground floor of Our Lady of the Assumption Cathedral, now occupied by various groups.
