Blast From the Past

Dorothy Trigg

For the first time, the bulletin announced that there was a First Friday Adoration and Confession on the 22nd Sunday after Pentecost, 1949. Though there was no announcement saying this would happen, there was one announcing it had happened. This is a tradition that still continues to this day (please join us on the First Friday of the month for Adoration and Confession!!), and it is nice to see when, roughly this tradition was started.

"The showing for the First Friday was very encouraging. 33 received (Shippensburg). I hope that as the months go on that this number will increase."
