

Grace Within Announcements

Introducing Grace Within as a New Ministry

“Good morning. My name is _____. I have been part of this community for _____. I am here to talk to you about a new ministry being established at _____. Grace Within is a small group spiritual growth process for women utilizing personal journals and led by peers. An empowering journey to your inner self, Grace Within is an invitation to understand how you can grow spiritually. It was developed by Within Ministries, a non-profit organization, and is based on a twenty year proven spiritual process.”

“Grace Within brings women together to share insights on eight topics from this book (hold up Grace Within: A Personal Journal), to pray, and to discuss issues affecting our lives. For me, there are three exciting things about Grace Within:

1. I will have the opportunity to reflect on and talk about the joys and challenges of the many roles I hold.
2. I will learn how to plan time for myself as I minister to others.
3. I will discover on a deeper level who I am and how I can grow.”

“Grace Within will begin on _____ at _____. I am here today to invite you to join those of us who have already said ‘yes’ to participating. We will be available _____ to answer your questions and help you register. It’s important that you register so you can get your copy of the journal and be prepared for the first gathering.”

“Please pray that this ministry will blossom and strengthen our community. For more information, pick up a brochure or stop by on your way out.”

Publicizing Grace Within in Communities Familiar with Ministry of Mothers Sharing

“Good morning. My name is _____. I have been part of this community for _____. I am here to introduce you to Grace Within. You may be familiar with Ministry of Mothers Sharing. Grace Within is based on content from that ministry that has now been revised, updated, and enhanced. It was developed by Within Ministries, a non-profit organization, and is based on the same twenty year proven spiritual process.”

“When I first joined a few years ago, I was looking for a place to belong and an opportunity to get to know myself a little better. It had been a while since I had experienced any spiritual growth, and I felt rather stuck and disconnected. The ministry offered me the opportunity to meet for discussion, support, and prayer with other women. I discovered a relaxed, comfortable place where I could just be myself, learn about myself, and grow spiritually. I met and felt supported by a number of women, and I also realized I had a lot to offer them as well. I found the connection and sense of belonging I was seeking, and I developed relationships with some wonderful women.”

“_____ will be offering Grace Within beginning _____ at _____. You can find more information _____.”
