Consent to Participate

DOB:

Participant Name:

I have been informed and provided a brochure about the services provided by the Red Tomato Farm and Inn at Hempfield Behavioral Health, and consent for the individual named above to participate in the adult training facility. I have been made aware of the risks inherent in farm activities including livestock, farm work, outdoor exposure, and tools and machinery.

I am aware that I may terminate participation from Hempfield Behavioral Health (Red Tomato Farm) at anytime.

I am aware that Hempfield Behavioral Health agrees to maintain the confidentiality of any information regarding applicants, program participants, or their immediate families which may be obtained through applications, forms, interviews, test reports from public agencies, counselors, or any other sources. Without permission of the applicant, such information shall be divulged only as necessary for the purpose related to the performance or evaluation of the contract and the persons having responsibilities under the contract.

I am aware that Hempfield Behavioral Health also will provide client information to Case Management Unit or County MHID Services if that agency has made the referral for treatment. I understand that services for my participation will be billed to a third party.

I am aware that the above named individual in the process of emergency treatment by a health professional and information from Hempfield Behavioral Health is required for emergency treatment, necessary and limited related information to the emergency may be released without my consent.

I am aware that new or previously unreported incidents of sexual or physical abuse will be reported. In addition, any knowledge of potential danger to self or others may result in breach of confidentiality to the appropriate parties.

I have read this consent, had it explaine	ed to me, and und	erstand it	s contents	. I 🔲 ACCEPT / 🗌	REJECT a copy of this

Client Rights and Responsibilities
Participant Nam	ie:											DO	B:		•

Participants, public, parents, and guardians will be treated with respect and dignity, and may expect all issues that affect their care to be handled in a confidential manner.

Additionally, clients have the right to:

- Choose a Provider of your choice
- Receive impartial access to necessary treatment and/or accommodations, regardless of race, color, religious creed, disability, ancestry, national origin, age, sex, or sources of payment for care
- Considerate, respectful treatment at all times
- Conduct interviews and be examined in surroundings designed to assure reasonable visual and auditory privacy
- Review communications and other records pertaining to their care, including the source of payment for treatment, and to have that information treated as confidential in accordance with the laws
- Obtain complete and current information concerning diagnosis (to the degree known), treatment, and any known prognosis, and to participate in decision-making regarding their treatment planning
- Give informed consent before the start of any procedure or treatment
- Receive information in a medium that they can understand. If a client does not speak or understand the predominant language of the community, they are able to request funds for an interpreter
- Receive materials that describe important information about their care in a format that is easy to understand and easy to read
- A clear process for complaints and comments, with resolution in a timely manner
- Employees will be trained in clients rights during employee orientation
- Any complaints of discrimination may be filed with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights, The Department of Public Welfare Bureau of Equal Opportunity, and/or The Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission:
