

Bad Axe, MI. www.macalpinefuneralhome.com

Deward "Dewey" Charles Koroleski, age 81, resident of Kinde, passed away Sunday, February 5, 2012 at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon.

He was born August 3, 1930 in Dwight Township to the late Joseph and Martha (Indo) Koroleski.

Dewey graduated from Kinde High School. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Dwight and the Port Austin American Legion Post #499. He loved his sports, playing the lotto and listening to polish music. He worked for many years at Salvo Tool Shop as a grinder.

He is survived by a brother in-law, Charles Wisneski of Kinde; his godchild/ niece, Georgette (Russell) Yohn of Shelby Township, a great niece, Stacy Yohn of Lake Ann, Mi. and his special friend, Grace Richmond.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Edmund and sister in-law, Grace Wisneski.

Mass of Christian burial will be held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Dwight Township with Fr. Nate, Pastor officiating.

Visitation will take place from 2:00 - 9:00 p.m. with scripture at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday at the MacAlpine Gage Chapel, Kinde and 9:00 a.m. - 10:30 on Wednesday at the Gage Chapel. Burial will at St. Mary's Cemetery. MacAlpine Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Memorials may be offered to the Donor's Choice. www.macalpinefuneralhome.com