

Normand Glaude

Normand Glaude is the owner and operator of Morning Anthem Studio. He has been active on the Ottawa music scene for over twenty years, working as a double bass and electric bass player. He regularly performs locally, and occasionally accompanies out-of-town artists.

He also produces and engineers recording projects with local artists. He recently recorded and co-produced Tim Bedner's "Of Light And Shadow". One of his latest projects was awarded a "Trille Or" for Best Children's Album with french artist Jojo.

Some of his performance credits include Marlene Verplanck, Michelle Grégoire, Martha Brooks, Guido Basso, Jefferey Smith, Bob Newhart and Mimi Fox.
