What Else You Can Do:

1. Sign the online petition at <https://tinyurl.com/TrackMBC>
2. Take a photo with your “Count Me” sign and post it to your Instagram, Twitter or Facebook with the hashtag #TrackMetastatic and a message about why it’s important for all people living with metastatic breast cancer to be counted. See below for some sample posts.
3. Ask your friends and family to sign the petition.

Sample messages:

My metastatic breast cancer diagnosis was my ____ (2nd, 3rd, 4th, etc...) diagnosis, which means I’m not counted in cancer statistics. I want to be counted. I want more awareness, research and funding for cures for Stage IV. Help me be counted. Sign a petition at <https://tinyurl.com/TrackMB> #TrackMetastatic #metstaticbc wasn’t my 1st diagnosis, so I’m not counted in cancer stats! Help me be counted. Sign the petition @ <https://tinyurl.com/TrackMBC> #TrackMetastatic

My initial #metastaticbc dx is counted, but my friends who recurred r not. Help count ALL ppl. Sign the petition @ <https://tinyurl.com/TrackMBC> #TrackMetastatic

My ____ (wife, partner, husband) has #metastaticbc & they’re not counted in cancer stats. Help count ALL ppl. Sign the petition @ <https://tinyurl.com/TrackMBC> #TrackMetastatic

You may want to consider tagging the following agencies in your post:

@NCICancerStats, @CDC_Cancer, @NIH.gov
