Bill Bouie – Community Activist and Local Executive Who Embodies Volunteerism to Appear on “Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young” on WOL DC 1450 AM

Arlington, VA – On Tuesday, June 2nd at 11 a.m. EST, the guest on “Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young” will be Bill Bouie who is a community activist, President of Sky Communications, and works tirelessly to give-back to the community.

Mr. Bouie’s parents instilled in him at an early age the importance of civic involvement. His parents were very active in the church, school, and other matters that effected human rights, dignity, and protections of individual liberties. In the 60’s and 70’s, he marched and participated in events with historical civic leaders such as: Martin Luther King, Jr., Mary McLeod Bethune, Jesse Jackson, and more.

“It is critically important to be involved in your community because if you are not involved, you have no reason to complain or voice when decisions are made”, said Bouie who is involved with many community affairs whether social issues, sports, or politics.

Mr. Bouie has served on numerous high-level boards and commissions, ranging from the: U.S. Olympic Committee Project Gold; Wolf Trap’s Board of Directors; Reston Hospital’s Board’s Vice Chair, and the current and seven-time Chairman of the Fairfax County Parks Authority. All of this is in addition to managing a company which provides network engineering and support services to the public sector, healthcare, and utilities markets.

While asked about his future plans, Mr. Bouie said that he wants to work to develop young adults to be ready to assume leadership positions within their communities. Part of giving-back, per Bouie, is to ensure that there’s an ongoing pipeline of resources who understand the importance of giving-back.

“Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young’s” host is honored to have Mr. Bill Bouie – who is someone with many talents, a local executive, a community activist, and most importantly a man who clearly embodies the importance of volunteerism.
