

Become an effective Leader in your building.

Transformation Through Education,
Collaboration and Innovation

Becoming an effective leader in our building has become an important piece of the evaluation system, yet; it is rarely discussed. This professional development segment examines the opportunities for leadership in each teacher's building and outlines how to improve this piece of the evaluation tool.

Topics to be discussed:

- Why is teacher leadership so important to my teaching?
- How do I become a teacher leader and still remain sane in my first few years?
- What is teacher leadership?
- How is leadership defined by my evaluators and by my school?
- How can I learn to lead in my discipline, in my school and in my district?
- How leadership is measured in my evaluation?

Key Take a ways:

- A strategic plan to increase teacher leadership at both the building and district levels.
- An understanding of what is manageable and not manageable at this time regarding leadership.
- How to work toward, understand, and create leadership in your building.

We customize our packages for each individual school district based upon their needs, their wants and their challenges.
